

Books

By Our

Members

Ⓐ Premier Edition: 2024-2025

Spokane Authors and Self-Publishers (SASP), now known as Spokane Authors, began in 1998 when Chuck O’Conner, Elmer Freeman, Joe Meiners, and Dan Vollmer, Spokane area authors, formed a club to share knowledge and experience with those interested in writing and alternative publishing. Today, SASP is an organization dedicated to anyone interested in any aspect of writing and art. Members include aspiring (and successful) authors, poets, journalists, illustrators, editors, publishers, printers, writing instructors, and many others. Monthly meetings provide inspiration and education by way of knowledgeable and entertaining guest speakers, and the cheerful camaraderie of people sharing common interests and goals. Membership is open to all who love writing, art, and interesting people.

Over the years, our members have written and published a wide range of books. Those by our current members are listed here. It’s possible they have written something that will appeal to your reading interests. Page through the listings and see if anything strikes a chord with you.

We provide a short biography of each listed author as well as cover images and a brief description of each book. Listings are in alphabetical order by author's last name. Books, as much as possible, are listed by sequence of publication.

For each book listed, we indicate whether it is available as a paperback (PB), a hardback (HB), an e-book (EB), and/or in audio format (AB). Books are generally available directly from the author, and many authors have provided a website that may allow you to contact them. You may also find authors at signing events at local bookstores and at local Arts and Craft Fairs. Many books are available in local Spokane area bookstores. As well, many books are available for order online, both as hard copies and as e-books.

If you cannot locate the book you want and cannot contact the author, contact Spokane Authors at: authors@spokaneauthors.org or send a letter to:

Spokane Authors
P. O. Box 18573
Spokane, WA 99228-0573

We will pass your message on to the author concerned so they can get in touch with you.

You may find more information about our authors and their books on our website: www.spokaneauthors.org. Select “MEMBERS” and then the author you are interested in.

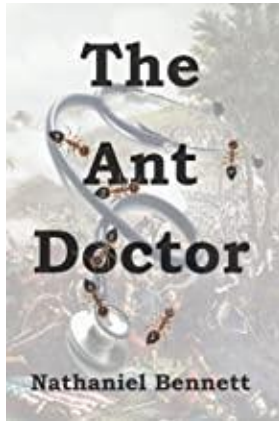

We are also providing a list of books by former and recent members. We provide only the author name and book name(s) and do not guarantee that any of the books are currently available.

Nathaniel Bennett

Nathaniel Bennett is a retired massage therapist who resides in Eastern Washington with his wife of over 40 years. He has written two books in a historical fiction Series, The Ant Doctor, and A Penny for Your Thoughts. He is working on a third, Yank, which should be released in 2025. He has also written a children's book, The Princess Who Had No Name, and an anthology of short stories called Boxers or Briefs: A Book of Shorts. Contact Nathaniel at nathaniel_bennett57@yahoo.com.

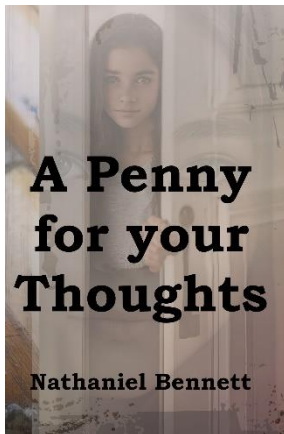

The Ant Doctor

In 1836, Jonathan Haggan was a man out of time. Although raised to be a plantation owner, he despised slavery and plantation life. At age twenty-four, Jonathan sold all he ever knew and set out to create his own legacy.

EB PB

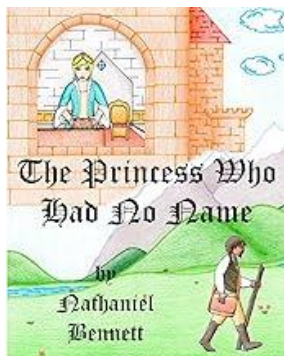

A Penny for Your Thoughts

A follow-up to The Ant Doctor, A Penny for Your Thoughts traces the footsteps of characters from that story and introduces some new personalities: an American pilot flying a patchwork fighter plane into occupied France in World War II, a spunky black woman who owns property and doesn't take insults from anyone, and a runaway orphan seeking shelter from unspoken horrors. Throw in the spy, the singer, and the bugs for a tale of wartime intrigue encompassing both sides of the Atlantic.

EB PB

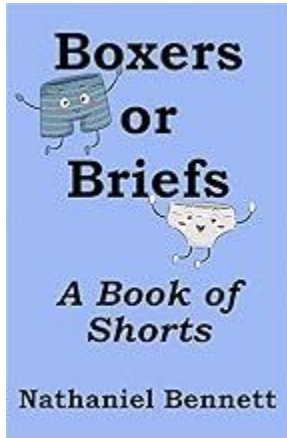

The Princess Who Had No Name

This is a children's adventure about a princess whose name was lost and the story of the quest to find it.

PB

Boxers or Briefs: A Book of Shorts

Boxers or Briefs is an eclectic collection of short stories covering many genres.

Other authors who contributed to this volume include Joel Craig and Carissa Northrup.

EB PB

Barbara Cagle

Barbara is the thirteenth of sixteen children. She was born and reared in San Jose, California. In her senior year at Notre Dame High School, a tragic toboggan accident confined her to bed for a couple of months. An out-of-body experience prior to impact and the love of family and friends convinced her to write her mother's story. During recovery, she collected letters and memorabilia from her family to use in creating that tribute.

16 X Mom: A Mastery of Motherhood

At the age of four, Jacqueline Rose Nunez was placed in the care of "Ma," a withered old lady. Rose, a diligent, obedient, shy child, bent to the old woman's demands. When she married Nello John Olivo, Rose's rooted passion for family sprouted into an unconditional love. Her previous enduring and trying experiences intensified her appetite for life and blossomed into sixteen long-stem roses, her term of endearment for her sixteen children.

HB

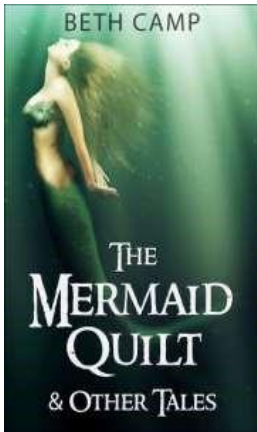

Beth Camp

Beth Camp writes mysteries and historical fiction. She has been an international banker, social policy analyst, and a department chair and college teacher of English and humanities. A sabbatical to many nations, with a month in each, motivated her to write full-time. Her historical fiction follows the McDonnell family from the Clearances in Scotland (Standing Stones, 2014), transportation to Australia (Years of Stone, 2014), the Hudson Bay Company in Canada (Rivers of Stone, 2017), and back to Scotland (Scattered Stones, 2022).

<https://bethandwriting.blogspot.com/>

The Mermaid Quilt and Other Tales

Mermaids permeate these eight stories and ten poems. A grieving artist sleeps under a mermaid quilt. From many locales, these delicate stories and poems, sometimes funny, sometimes dark, shaped by myth from long ago, speak of love, revenge, and redemption. Written for adults, they unravel the heart songs of people buffeted by life. They reinforce our yearning for the good and beautiful, and they reveal a fragile line between reality and magic.

EB PB

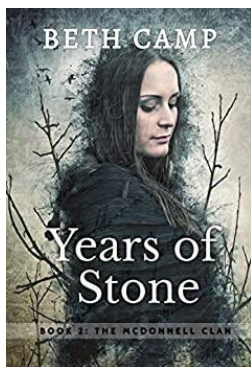

Standing Stones

In 19th Century Scotland, when Lord Gordon claims their island home, planning to replace residents with sheep, Mac McDonnell leads a protest, but when evictions begin, he must evaluate the risk. Standing Stones won a historical fiction award from the Pacific Northwest Writers Association in 2010, with judges calling it, “. . . a very promising work, with appeal to a broad audience, peppered with a variety of characters the reader can identify with sympathetically or instantly distrust.”

EB PB AB

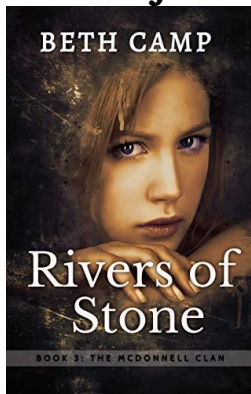

Years of Stone

In 1842, Deidre Scott follows Mac McDonnell, the man she loves, sentenced for resisting evictions. Their ship runs aground upon reaching Van Diemen’s Land. As Mac toils on a road gang, Deidre cobbles together a job. Can they build a new life in this rough-and-tumble penal colony? The second book about the McDonnell Clan can be read as a standalone story. It was a Quarter Finalist in 2014’s Amazon’s Breakthrough Novel Award competition. Reviewers said it “grips from the beginning” and is “not to be missed.”

EB PB

Rivers of Stone

In 1842, Catriona, unwilling to be left behind by her husband Dougal McDonnell, disguises herself as a boy to work for the Hudson’s Bay Company. Within a few days of landing at York Factory on Hudson’s Bay, Cat is assigned to work at the trading post, but Dougal is ordered west to Fort Vancouver and the Pacific Northwest—abandoning Cat. Rugged terrain and thousands of miles separate them. How will Cat survive alone? Will she and Dougal be reunited?

EB PB

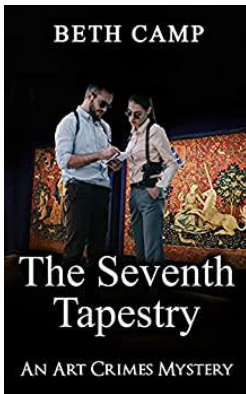

Scattered Stones

Scotland, 1842. Lord Gordon's evictions leave Dylan no choice. He leaves his wife, Moira, behind in the Orkney Islands to seek work, not knowing that she expects their first child. His only hope: her brothers will care for her. But evictions continue. Moira is left alone with her youngest brother. Desperate, she follows Dylan to Inverness but cannot find him. Will Dylan and Moira be reunited? Discover the underlying strength that helped them survive turbulent times in this story of separated lovers.

EB PB

The Seventh Tapestry

Precious artifacts go missing at the Museum of Medieval Art in Edinburgh. New curator Sandra Robertson is under suspicion. When asked to help find out who's involved, Sandra ignores her attraction to Neil McDonnell, art crimes investigator, and gets to work. After a priceless 16th-century tapestry goes missing, will they recover the missing artifacts, stop the thefts, and find out who's behind a series of mysterious deaths?

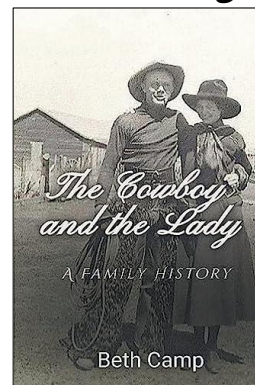

EB PB

Poetry in a Time of Pandemic

On March 6, 2020, the Coronavirus became real to our family, and we began to self-quarantine, later called stay-at-home. A few poems emerged during this first month. On April 1, National Poetry Month began, and Robert Lee Brewer, of Writer's Digest fame, began his PAD (poem a day) Challenge. This began my personal goal to write a poem each day. Here, you'll find poems that may make you laugh, think about places and times far from today—from Giza to the Old West, and poems that affirm the beauty of each day. EB PB

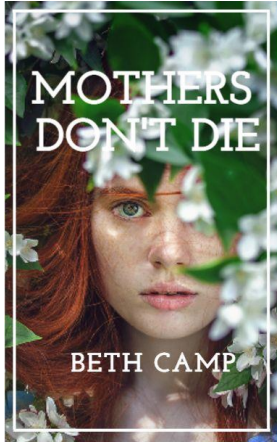

The Cowboy and the Lady

"Who is that lady?" asked my son-in-law, pointing to a sweet photo of my grandmother on her high school graduation. This family history tries to answer that by telling stories I heard while growing up that are supported by research. Every generation faces different challenges. Imagine being born at the turn of the century and living 100 years of change and challenge. This will allow you to understand who Frank and Sigrid Henry were, as they remain my grandparents.

EB PB

Mothers Don't Die

Laura, Ron, and five-year-old Kerry Anne Lattimer take a long-awaited camping trip in eastern Washington. It ends when they discover a young woman's body wrapped in black plastic and bound with rope. Despite Laura's fears, Ron drives off to get help. When he and two policemen return the next morning, they find the tent and campground empty—no wife, no child, and no dead body. What will Officer Greg Robertson do to track down the missing woman and child? What will Laura do when she awakens to find herself and Kerry being driven to an unknown location?

EB PB

Anya Carlson

Anya Carlson taught school in Spokane, Washington, and later worked as a convention planner, producer, and presenter in the Pacific Northwest and Western Canada. A lifelong reader and writer/creator, she has been a partner, researcher, and executive assistant to author-illustrator J. B. Rivard during the writing, publication, and marketing of his historical novel Illusions of Magic. She is co-author of Illusions in Magic: The Movie and lives in Arizona. (See J. B. Rivard entry to learn about their books.)

Joyce Caudel

Joyce Caudel has been a member of the Red Hat Society since 2002. She is Queen of her chapter, Noble Babes in Red Hats. She is a proud mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She lived most of her life in California before moving to Cheney, Washington, in 1991. The Hat Pin Murders was Joyce's first novel and was a Finalist in the General Fiction category of The USA "Best Books 2011" Awards. The Hat Box Mystery was published in 2012, and A Hat to Die For followed sometime later.

The Hat Pin Murders

The Red Hat Society has over 50,000 registered members; and in Joyce Caudel's first novel, one of them ends up dead. So begins a story that is part mystery, part thriller, and part celebration of the Society. When a Hattie is stabbed at a gathering, it is up to her close friends to uncover the truth and discover what the police cannot—the identity of Mary's killer. They must unravel the secrets of their newest member's secret past and confront the murderer while staying true to their Hattie heritage of fun, fellowship, and love.

PB

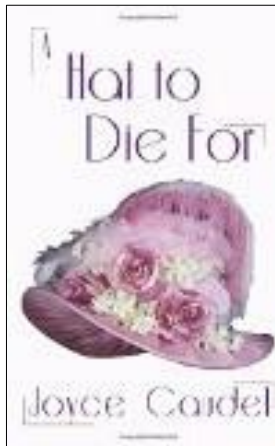

The Hat Box Mystery

The Mystery Mamas are about fun, dressing in purple, feather boas, and an elegant red hat. Rachel Davis, a beautiful divorcée, wakes in the wee morning hours to find three masked men in her kitchen. Her Great Dane, Jake, brings one of them down, but the other two run like scared rabbits. When Jake is shot in a drive-by shooting, Rachel wonders if it is connected to the break-in. Rachel's handsome and very wealthy uncle, Milo Jenkins, returns from his world travels to give her some moral support and perhaps a little romance for one of the Hatties.

EB PB

A Hat to Die For

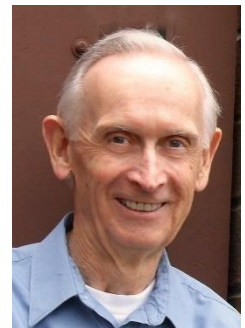

Chancy Goodnight, best-selling cozy women's mystery author, receives threats from someone claiming she has inside information about his life. After getting threatening phone calls and red roses with a dead rat, she contacts local law enforcement. When a dead man interrupts her gala costume party and her granddaughter is kidnapped, Chancy wonders if God has abandoned her. A Hat to Die For is a story about enjoying the golden years, treasuring family and friends, love, forgiveness, and renewed trust in God.

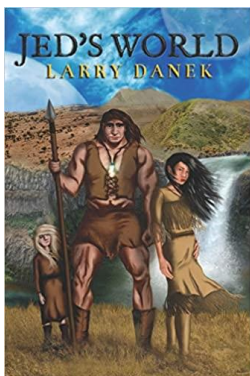

EB PB

Larry Danek

Larry Danek came to writing late in life. He was past the age of 70 when he published his first book—Jed's World—followed by the books in the Nomadic Ghost series. He has lived in Spokane since 1995, and he doesn't think he's done writing yet

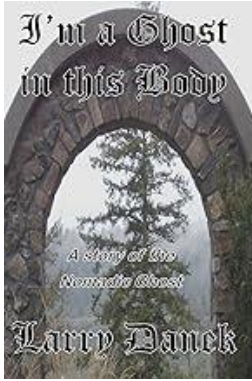

Jed's World

The ability to create living creatures had been easy but to have those beings use initiative and understand complex matters had not been as simple. The only way to get the newly-made ones to progress was to use an existing soul who had already developed the skills of forethought and concept. Success would come in the form of an elderly Earth man who was no longer interested in life. George Martin expected to join his wife in the hereafter, but as luck would have it, he was given the chance to start over in a new world.

EB PB

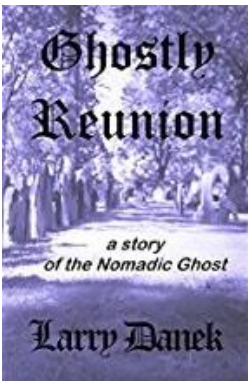

I'm a Ghost in this Body: A Story of the Nomadic Ghost

The Nomadic Ghost travels from body to body as required. He never knows when or where that will be. He is accompanied by less visible fellow ghosts. They help him to understand his purpose in this body but don't always make it easy. He tends to go from one crisis to another. He remembers a couple of past lives, but he knows there were more. And he has some abilities that no humans have. The latest body is of a person shot and declared dead. What will he do with this one?

EB PB

Ghostly Reunion: A Story of the Nomadic Ghost (Vol. 2)

This isn't a normal ghost story, as the Nomadic Ghost will use a living body to fix problems other ghosts have left behind. Chuck Anderson's body is recovered from the river and reanimated for a time. The ghost will encounter various problems while seeking to complete the mission he was called for.

EB PB

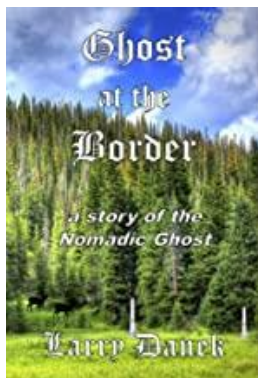

Runaway Ghost: A Story of the Nomadic Ghost (Vol. 3)

The Nomadic Ghost finds himself in the body of a ten-year-old child and has to find ways to complete the numerous tasks that he is asked to do. The ghosts that have summoned him seem to have more power than he does from the ethereal side.

PB

Ghost at the Border: A Story of the Nomadic Ghost (Vol. 4)

The Nomadic Ghost is called to fix problems left by other spirits that have died and remain until those problems are corrected. In this book, the Ghost must stop drug smugglers operating in Canada and the United States.

EB PB

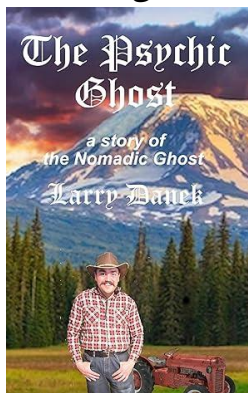

Pioneer Ghost: A Story of the Nomadic Ghost (a short prequel)

The Pioneer Ghost travels the Oregon Trail in search of his designated target and finds companions and fellow travelers along the way. Indians and other travails beset them before he can find the men he is destined to remove from the living. He is called by dead men who seek revenge for some reason he must discover.

EB PB

The Psychic Ghost: A Story of the Nomadic Ghost (Vol. 5)

Daniel B. Holly was working the fields of his farm when a storm threatened, and he needed to finish. Failing to heed the flashes in the sky, he is struck by lightning and loses consciousness. The dual bolts hit him and the tractor he's on and put both out of commission. Holly appears to survive as the Nomadic Ghost takes over his body. He finds that some things happen around him that he can't account for, like knowing what might happen next.

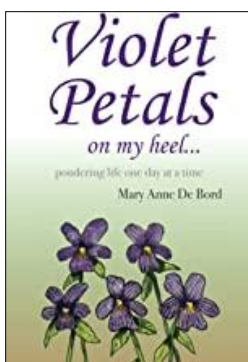

EB PB

Mary A. De Bord

Mary De Bord is a recently retired dental hygienist/ consultant formerly known as “The Tooth Fairy.” In addition to writing, she enjoys gatherings with family and friends, gardening, travel, oil painting, thrift store adventures, and repurposing found treasures. She lives in Spokane, Washington, and can most often be found in her studio or garden enjoying the flowers, squirrels, birds, butterflies, and whoever drops by!

Violet Petals on my Heel

Violet Petals is a random series of daily thoughts, stories, and experiences meant to prompt introspection and, hopefully, inspiration. Consider the choices offered to you each day, each moment, and how you might thoughtfully respond to life instead of rapidly reacting. There are signs all around you guiding you on your journey. Slow down and take notice. There is also an entire universe within you just waiting to be discovered and acknowledged and unexpected whispers in your mind directing you to your happiest, most harmonious life.

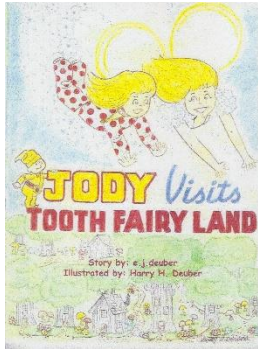

PB

Betty Deuber

Harry and Betty married in November 1954 and are proud parents of four, grandparents of eight, and great-grandparents of many more. When the children were small, Betty made up stories to tell or read to them. A history buff, she researched facts and legends and wrote articles on the Pacific Northwest for special projects. In the early sixties, to satisfy Deborah's curiosity about, "What happens to the teeth?" Harry and Betty combined their interests in writing and illustrating, creating the story Jody Visits Tooth Fairy Land.

Jody Visits Tooth Fairy Land

"What happens to my teeth," Jody asked every time she lost a tooth. As Jody tumbles into Tooth Fairy Land, Mini Mitzi, a Wee fairy, meets and leads her on a path that zigzags around Wee fairies scooping dew drops from green leaves into tooth-shaped buckets, through a velvet green forest village into the elves' Carpenter Cove. Another curve, and they see the magic machine that turns teeth into fairy and elf clothes. She awakened to the sound of her father's lawn mower.

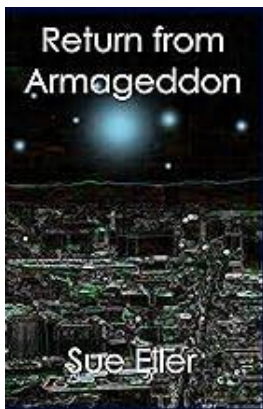

PB

Sue Eller

In her writing, Sue Eller's first love is science fiction, which, she adds, can sometimes become science fact. She also does editing, layout, and cover design. She has been a reporter and sportswriter for a weekly newspaper and has done interviews and articles for a nationally distributed magazine. Visit her website at www.emilytracemysteries.com.

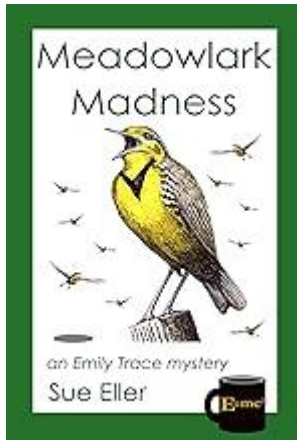

Return From Armageddon

The people of Earth have finally united and have formed a one-world government with the capital in what was formerly Las Vegas. Religious and political strife have been squelched under the iron rule of the Federation of United Countries and United Peoples, but a new threat looms. An armada of spaceships has appeared near Jupiter, apparently to invade the troubled planet. Brilliant engineer Becky Johnson has designed a planetary defense system. It is nearly ready to be activated when things begin to go awry.

EB PB

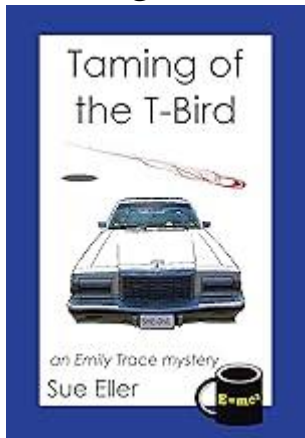

Meadowlark Madness

Emily Trace is a young widow determined to find out who murdered her husband. The police are baffled, and after six months, she takes matters into her own hands. Opening E. T. Investigations seems like a good way to look for clues. That is until her first client shows up believing E. T. stands for Extra-Terrestrial instead of Emily Trace. He hires her to look into an alien abduction involving meadowlarks, no less, and before she can say UFO she is embroiled in a case that will change her life.

EB PB

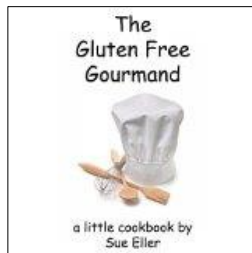

Taming the T-Bird

A local contractor asks Emily Trace for help with a unique car problem, and she suspects an other-worldly cause. In her quest to tame the errant 1980 Ford Thunderbird, Emily becomes entangled in murder and arson cases, becoming, for a while, a prime suspect. Her quirky receptionist falls for a less-than-savory boyfriend, and E. T. Investigations flounders. Spokane's favorite bungling detective encounters an alien megalomaniac who plans to conquer Earth. It's up to Emily and her friends to thwart his evil schemes.

EB PB

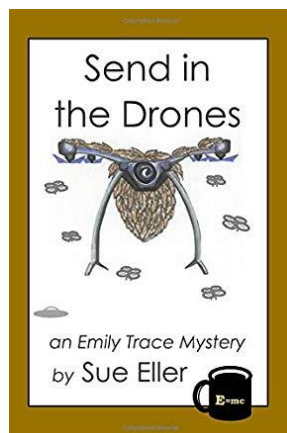

The Gluten Free Gourmand

This little cookbook has within its pages recipes that almost anyone can prepare at home at a reasonable cost. There are no exotic flours, just good-tasting food that even people without gluten allergies or sensitivities will enjoy.

EB PB

Send In the Drones

Parts brought in by Emily's latest client form a personal-size drone. As soon as it's complete, it disappears after shooting its laser at E. T. Investigations' newest employee. The ensuing drone plague wreaks havoc with Emily's employees, threatens the U. S. Postal Service, and is witnessed from Spokane to Slippery Gulch with a potential visit to an abandoned alien base on the slopes of Tekoa Mountain. Emily Trace and friends face off with a control freak, a laser-armed attacker, and finally discover who murdered her husband.

EB PB

Short Trips to Alternate Universes

A collection of compositions by the author spanning about 30 years in Earth time and who knows how long in the space-time continuum.

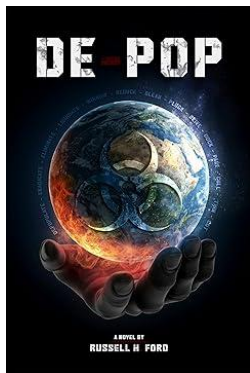

EB PB

Russ Ford

Russ grew up in Lacey, Washington, outside the State Capitol, Olympia. At North Thurston High School, he was encouraged to write and was given a Smith Corona manual typewriter. He is thankful to his parents and sisters for setting a bar higher than he ever could. www.de-pop.com

De-pop

Secret agent Neah Bey has a plan to slow the growth of the global populace. Blessed with brains and experience with spy craft, he intends to preserve a higher quality of life for all. But he didn't count on an attack from a proxy of the Church, with a history almost as devious as his own. Bey soon finds himself on the run with his wife, Ione; they must face a battle against an enemy they don't know and have never met.

EB PB HB

Re-ring

Imagine artifacts that perfectly indicate that this is the second time around for the human race. What will governments and financial institutions do to prevent them from being revealed? Who would destroy them, and why? Who gains from their exposure? Neah Bey and associates race from the Antarctic to the Smithsonian to the forest lands of Eastern Washington to secure mysterious items wrenched from the Antarctic and stolen from museums around the world. In the end, who will you believe?

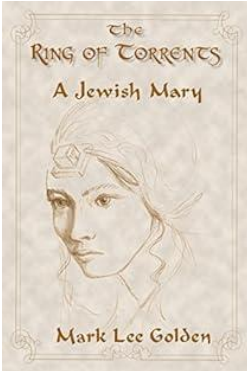

EB PB HB

Mark Lee Golden

Mark Lee Golden moved to the Northwest from the rat race of Southern California decades ago. He has written and published three books: Ring of Torrents: A Jewish Mary; Chronicles of Two Pentecosts: Ancient People to Meet, Ancient Stories to Ponder; and The Drop: Secret Delivery. He has also produced three volumes of Light, Medium, Dark: Stories and Word Graphics

The Ring of Torrents: A Jewish Mary

I watched, listened to, followed, and learned about her in ways no one had before. Mary knew I was there, also that she needed to allow me to report on her and her life. You might say that God had a parking spot reserved for me wherever she was. I learned to admire that woman beyond the limited print of Scripture.

EB PB

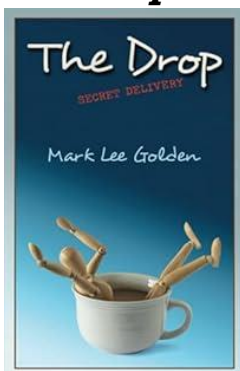

Chronicles of Two Pentecosts: Ancient People to Meet, Ancient Stories to Ponder

Holy rollers, hype, antics, claims of miracles, and the gift of tongues? These are what some of the modern Christian world and non-believers associate with Pentecost. When you read this book, you will grow in your understanding of Pentecost, not only as a one-time event in Christian history but as a part of the continuing Jewish way of life—3,400 years and counting. What was it all about? Read on.

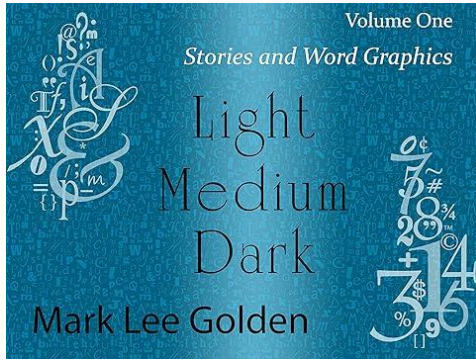

EB PB

The Drop: Secret Delivery

Through otherworldly circumstances an emotionally shutdown woman enters unknown territory where she is valued beyond belief and finds lasting meaning. Distracted out of her daily routine she maneuvers to search out jarring answers. Veering from her private self, Lissa questions: My life isn't right, but it isn't wrong, is it?

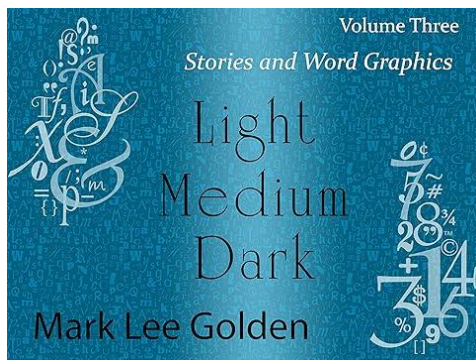

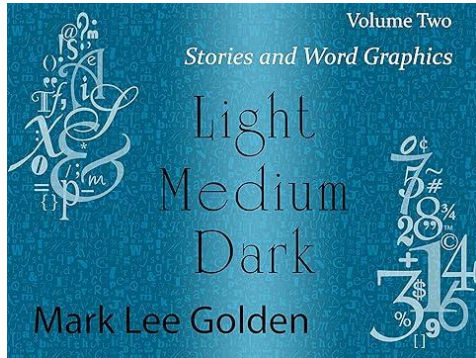

EB PB

Light Medium Dark: Stories and Word Graphics

These three volumes are a compilation of creative graphics and written material. I have selected 200 enjoyable and challenging graphics from my library of over 1,000 layouts, as well as a great variety of sixty short stories, articles, blogs, and commentaries. The title of each volume is Light, Medium, Dark, meaning the three sections within each volume blend twenty written pieces and sixty-six-word graphics, which are emotionally light, medium, and dark. Writing is a passion of mine. I started writing satirical short pieces for the benefit of a close friend's teenage daughter. I titled the occasional column Not Quite Right News from Mark Golden. I emailed these to her and eventually to other friends. Quizzically, here and there, certain readers wrote back thinking my pieces were truthful or that I had posted other writers' humorous works. Some asked, "Where did you find these?" I needed to add a disclaimer noting my authorship and use of parody. This would help the innocent readership. Bottom Line: if I could fool people, then apparently, I knew how to write.

EB

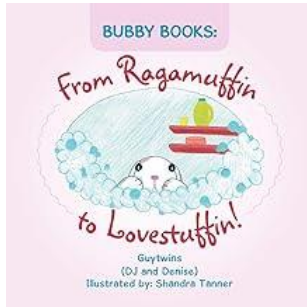

D. J. and Denise Guy

D. J. and Denise Guy are identical twins born and raised in southern California. They've always had a love for stuffed animals or stuffies. Growing up, they had more than their friends and have adopted hundreds since. Now living in Washington, they've had a childcare business in their home for over two decades and have fallen in love with children's books about stuffies. It's been their dream to share this love with the world. guytwins@gmail.com

Bubby Books: From Ragamuffin to Lovestuffin!

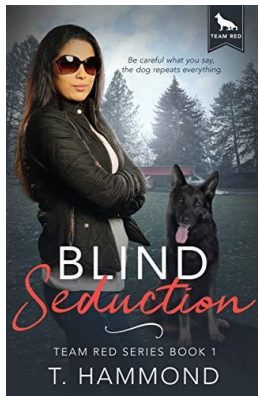

Read about finding love, acceptance and family through the eyes of a large stuffed rabbit that didn't know those things existed. Join him and other Stuffies (Bubbies) who live with eight-year-old identical twin girls who make it their mission to rescue lonely, unwanted, unloved stuffed animals. You will be taken away into the thoughts of this stuffed animal's world and his many adventures to come.
PB

T. Hammond

T. Hammond recently joined Spokane Authors. A paranormal romance and urban fantasy author, T. feels writing is not a calling so much as it is a compulsion. No one is more surprised than she is when characters take over the plot and dialog, (re)directing stories in directions she had not (consciously) intended. Although T starts out each novel with a basic outline, she finds one or two chapters into the novels, not only have the characters shredded her outline into tiny unidentifiable pieces, they use the resulting confetti in a nose-thumbing parade.

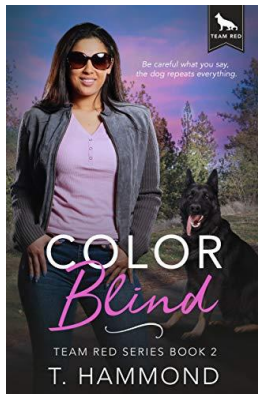

Blind Seduction: Team Red, Book 1

Teresa March lost her sight and independence. Life is better with Red, a companion German shepherd, from her friend. Red is a typical dog, except for the talking-in-Teresa's-head thing. If a smart-alec dog isn't enough, Sebastian and David have set their sights on Teresa. Neither sexy ex-Navy man is above military tactics to secure their target--and so begins the siege of Teresa March. When you stop drooling over the men, consider the implications of a talking dog...the police department certainly has.

EB

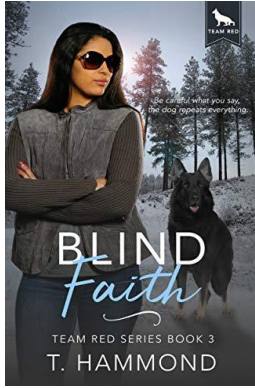

Color Blind: Team Red, Book 2

Teresa has finally found love, and a new career with the help of Red. He seems like a typical German shepherd but shares an extraordinary mental communication link with his owner. He's also scary-smart and has a talent for tracking. Teresa and Red, along with David and Bas, form Team Red and help the local police sift through clues which only Red's sensitive nose and Teresa's ability to ask the right questions can uncover. A twist of fate brings Team Red to the military's attention, and they get ready for their first undercover mission (we can only divulge at this point that Red looks adorable in his tux).

EB

Blind Faith: Team Red Book 3

TERESA REELS as life crashes down around her. Betrayal leaves her struggling to put on a brave front for those she cares about. Her telepathic sight dog, Red, and Bastian, help her anchor against self-doubt and turbulent emotions. Bastian remains steadfast in love and loyalty to Teresa, even when she chooses David. But David is living a lie, throwing all Teresa believes into question. As Bastian guards her personal safety against those seeking access to PreClan technology, can he also reassure Teresa he is worthy of her trust?

EB

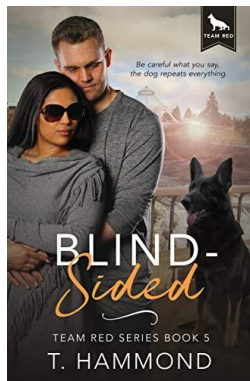

Blind Rage: Team Red Book 4

CHOOSING DAVID, Teresa is stunned by his confession, and subsequent desertion on Christmas Eve. Bastian Declan, David's business partner and Teresa's childhood friend, has loved her for years and seizes this chance to win her heart. While David is in Boston, PreClan's top-secret surveillance system is at a critical stage. The house and surrounding property crawl with armed guards, in addition to monitoring tools no one would admit exist. Teresa's companion dog, Red, is excited by the activity. Will his vigilance and unique bond with Teresa be enough to keep her safe?

EB

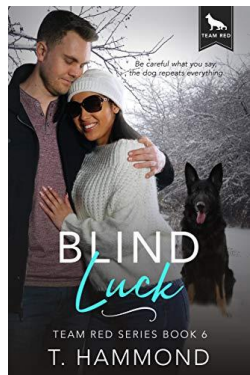

Blindsided: Team Red Book 5

Team Red supports Teresa in battling unseen demons. Marcia and Wes move to Spokane, and the cancer vigil begins. Compassionate friends take over Marcia's hospice care as Teresa struggles against PTSD nightmares and paranoia. Tank bonds with Wes as the sad young boy watches his mom slip away. Bastian is on the East Coast doing PreClan military software upgrades. At home, David exerts subtle, unrelenting pressure, hoping Teresa will give him a second chance. Will his obsessive behavior destroy his relationship with her and Bas?

EB

Blind Luck: Team Red Book 6

WHAT HAPPENS IN RENO, should stay in Reno. Unfortunately, Red has never learned to keep a secret. Team Red goes to Nevada to help solve a series of violent crimes that have spread from Tahoe's lakeside trails to Reno's desert recreation areas. David stays in Spokane while Bastian completes PreClan military software installations. Both worry about Teresa as she and Red close in on the vicious gang terrorizing the Sierra Mountains. Missing skiers' only hope is a top-notch rescue dog. Team Red has never been more in demand.

EB

Team Red Omnibus 1 (Books 1 – 3)

What would you do for the one you love? Could you walk away? Teresa March, blinded by accident, has a telepathic link with her German shepherd, Red. His droll, unfiltered thoughts brighten her days and provide a surprising career opportunity. As Team Red, they work with police to uncover forensic clues. Two ex-Navy men, Bastian and David, specialize in security systems and topographical mapping. Their company, PreClan, works on a sensitive military project military, putting Teresa's safety in jeopardy. Despite deadlines, both use one-up-manship and guerrilla tactics to win her heart.

EB

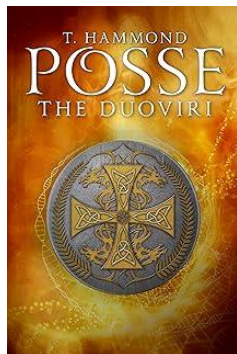

Team Red Omnibus 2 (Books 4 – 6)

What would you do for the one you love? Could you walk away? An accident leaves Teresa March scarred and completely blind. Teresa slowly learns to adapt to life in the dark, reclaiming her independence. Specializing in security systems and 3-D topographical mapping, Bastian and David's company, PreClan, working on a sensitive military project. Despite looming deadlines, neither is too busy to compete for Teresa's affections, resorting to a game of one-up-manship and guerrilla tactics to win her heart.

EB

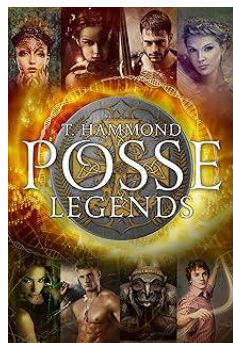

Posse: Duoviri

Over thousands of years and countless lifetimes I've led men to war. I am warrior, mother, widow, and shapeshifter. You hear tales of my bravery, ferocity, passion, and strength, but those aren't reality. Men write history and paint the accomplishments of women with a tainted brush. One of my names is Boudicca. I am the last, the strongest shapeshifter leading a posse of paranormal warriors. I am the Duoviri, the judge, jury, and executioner for our society, the Eximium.

EB

Posse: Legends

Dragons, Shifters, and Vamp! Oh, my! An easy job. Track the jackal. Rescue the girl. Return bad puppy to the Council for questioning. Conflicts between shifters and wereanimals—beluae—are common; petty squabbling over territory and resources calls for endless mediation and no small amount of eye-rolling. Duoviri Lexa O'Clare has been sheriff and chief magistrate of the Eximium special criminal court, judge, jury, and executioner for two millennia.

EB

Tiffani Harvey

Tiffani Harvey, a lifelong Washington resident, was born with multiple disabilities. She's married and has two children. Her philosophies are "People with disabilities can do anything they set their mind to," and "Learn all you can before you choose."

"I started writing my first book in 1998 with the intention of using it as a tool, not to sell it. I had never heard of an independent author or self-publishing. It has taken this long for me to realize this." Visit Tiffani's website at:

www.responsiblyindependent.com

A Journey to Independence

A Journey to Independence is meant to help people who are trying to make their own choices in life. The author tells her own life story in the hope that the readers will learn how to make their own choices. The suggestions and questions throughout this book are guidelines to help people with disabilities know what kinds of questions they should ask before making a choice. This is an autobiographical, inspirational, topical, self-help, life application book.

PB

Growing Independent

Growing Independent is a workbook that can be used with A Journey to Independence. It is also a stand-alone book in the format of questions and answers. Growing Independent takes the reader on an in-depth journey to discover their everyday life and life skills. Each question makes a person really think about their life and why and how they are living it. Targeted especially for people with disabilities, young people, and victims of violence, Growing Independent is a life guide for anyone who chooses to read and implement it. This is a life application workbook that helps the readers better know themselves.

PB

Freedom Seeker

This is an autobiographical, inspirational, topical, self-help, life application. This is a more mainstream edition of A Journey to Independence, revised for the average or above-average reader.

PB

Freedom Seeking

Freedom Seeking is a life application workbook that helps the readers better know themselves. This is a more mainstream edition of Growing Independent, revised for the average or above-average reader.

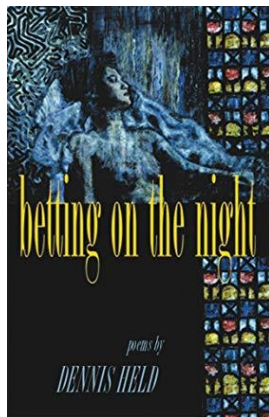

PB

Dennis Held

In 2001, Dennis moved to Spokane, Washington, and taught for the Community Colleges of Spokane. He has led workshops in poetry writing and manuscript preparation, partnering with Spark Central and other community organizations. He has published three poetry books: Betting on the Night, Ourselves, and Not Me Exactly. He writes and publishes nonfiction articles, book reviews, and essays on such topics as morel mushroom hunting and Old Guy Basketball.

Betting on the Night

The poems in Betting on the Night are full of hope but not conviction, full of doubt but not despair, full of wit and humor and fancy but not frivolity, true to the real, true to the ideal. The sound of the language in these poems is convincing. The words and their order, the rich images and their forms, address the struggle, humor, and surprise of life. In detail and moment, Dennis Held reminds us again and again of the utter marvel of our being, and he does so with honesty and grace. —Pattiann Rogers

PB

Ourselves

Ourselves is the mature work of a major American poet. Dennis Held's poems are deeply moving and always well-crafted. He does not turn away from difficult subjects, but he is a master of leavening the darkness with insight and humor. —Derek Sheffield, author of Through the Second Skin

PB

Not Me Exactly

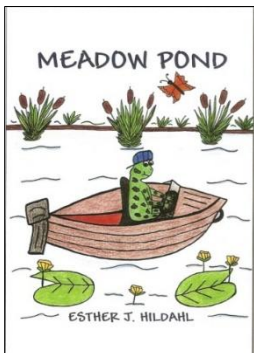

Hand to Mouth Press of Walla Walla released Spokane Author Member Dennis Held's third book of poetry, Not Me, Exactly. "It's my most wide-ranging book, with some poems written to amuse, and others meant to offer a sobering glimpse of my version of reality."

Esther Hildahl

Esther J. Hildahl was born in Olympia, Washington. Though she has lived most of her life in Washington State, she has also lived for shorter periods of time in Oregon, Montana, and California. She has traveled extensively in the United States and Mexico, and has lived in Europe. She graduated from EWSC (now EWU) and taught grades four and five at Jefferson Elementary for nineteen years. She has many interests, one of which is writing for children.

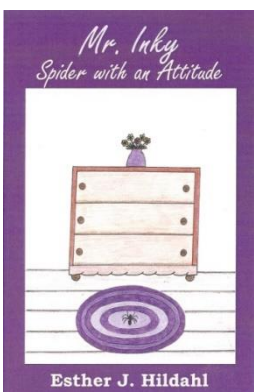

Meadow Pond

Life is great for frogs and a turtle living at Meadow Pond, except for weekends when the mean Red Boat kids come to the nearby lake. They must hide or risk capture, never to be seen again. For the rest of the week, they can enjoy the pond and explore the green meadow. That is, until Hes-per, the giant snake from the forest, decides he wants a frog to eat! Hes-per becomes a big problem. What can they do? A chapter book for grades 2-5 with numerous illustrations

EB PB

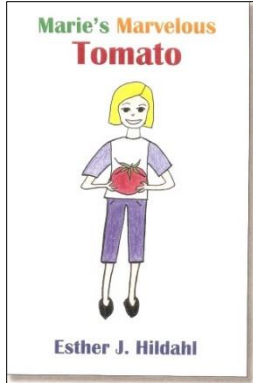

Mr. Inky: Spider with an Attitude

Mr. Inky, the lovable talking spider with bad grammar and an attitude, has come to live in Vicki Wyatt's bedroom. She wants him to leave, even threatening him with her yellow flip-flop. He refuses to go, saying it's his home, too. What happens when Vicki takes him to school for her science project? At first, he doesn't want to go, especially in a jar. He agrees to go after Vicki promises him he will be safe in the classroom. But can she protect him from Rory Picklebok, the meanest kid in fifth grade? A chapter book for grades 3-6.

EB PB

Marie's Marvelous Tomato

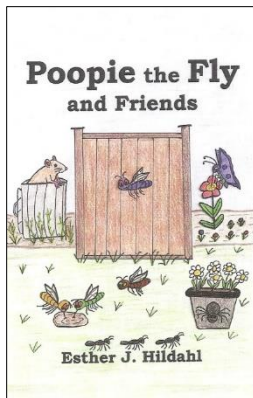

Marie Bishkee's best friend leaves town, maybe forever, and she has no one her age to play with. One day, she discovers a garden of leafy green tomato plants. Marie tells her mother that she wants to grow her own tomatoes. When her mother lets her buy one tomato plant and her grandmother shows her how to protect it from cutworms, she plants it. Instead of many tomatoes, it produces only one, but what a marvelous tomato it turns out to be.

Chapter book for grades 2-5.

EB PB

Poopie the Fly and Friends

This is the story of Poopie, the bluebottle fly, and friends, including one that Poopie doesn't tell the others about—a black spider named Mr. Inky. Fly students are taught to be aware of what is around them, but Poopie and friends get into one risky situation after another. How does Poopie escape from a poop-eating dog, a fly-eating dog, a sticky drink, a birdbath full of yellow jackets, flyswatters, hundreds of spiders, and a vicious praying mantis?

Chapter book for grades 2-6.

EB PB

Winter Stories

Well-illustrated, this is a fun read-aloud book with a lot of exciting characters. Billy Skoomble gets in trouble but now has something for Show and Tell. Zuri the Squirrel is taken from her family, but two new friends help her find the way home. Winter Surprise. Three snow ladies, using magic, affect the lives of little white bunnies. Angus the Rat finds happiness, friends, and danger in a new home with a large backyard. In Christmas Bugs, a lost boy in a magical forest meets the colorful, talented Christmas Bugs that live there.

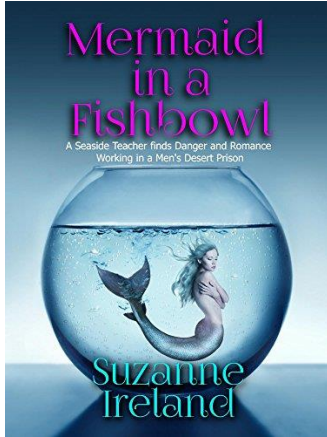

EB PB

Suzanne Holland

Suzanne is a writer and editor from Idaho who writes as Suzanne Ireland. She wrote a book about a teacher in a men's prison because she was that teacher. Many events in this story happened to the author, including the romance. She has taught kindergarten, third grade, and special education to all ages. Suzanne lives in the Pacific Northwest with her family and two trained cats.

Mermaid in a Fishbowl

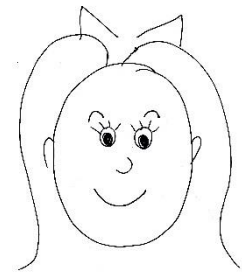

Fed up with teaching over-privileged children of spoiled parents, Callie Winters accepts a job teaching literacy to men in prison. It doesn't take her long to realize her training isn't enough for this school of sharks. Without the usual freedom and tools, Callie struggles to do the best she can while feeling much like a mermaid in a fishbowl. Callie is faced with assaults, lockdowns, gang rules, stabbings, illegal tattooing, a prison take-over, and several admirers. Amazingly, Callie Winters finds herself attracted to more than one man.

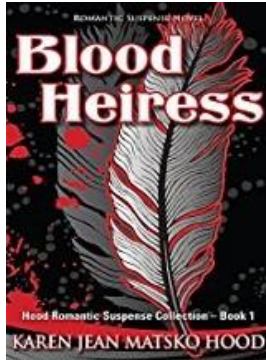

EB PB

Karen Jean Hood

Karen recently rejoined Spokane Authors. She calls Spokane Valley, Washington, home. She is a super prolific writer with at least a couple of books in nearly every category. Visit Karen online at: www.facebook.com/KarenJeanMatskoHoodAuthor.

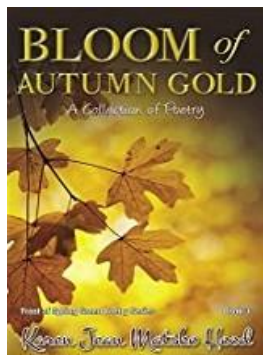

Blood Heiress

Nichole Butler came to Bear River but didn't plan to be attracted to her surly but handsome boss, Justin Talbott. Just as Nichole feels that she might be able to fall in love again, a woman from Justin's past claims him for her own. Nichole can't compare to this beautiful, sophisticated woman and doesn't wish to compete for any man, even the handsome and wealthy Justin Talbott. But she is in grave danger, having hidden her past from those dear to her in Bear River. Will life and love triumph over dark secrets and a tragic past?

PB

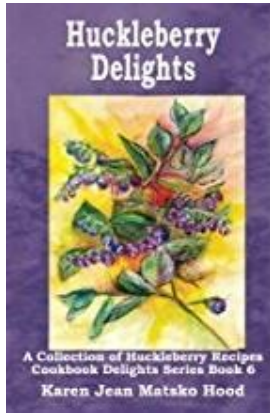

Bloom of Autumn Gold: A Collection of Poetry

Karen Jean Matsko Hood weaves an assortment of her most insightful verses in Bloom of Autumn Gold. Hood's writing reminds us of the link between nature and the environment in our daily living. She is not afraid to express outrage at social injustices, while she offers a voice for those deemed forgotten. Hood's words deliver optimism in the most hopeless of situations as she continues her quest for social justice for all. Bloom of Autumn Gold is an ideal read, and it makes a great gift for friends, family members, and aspiring poets.

PB

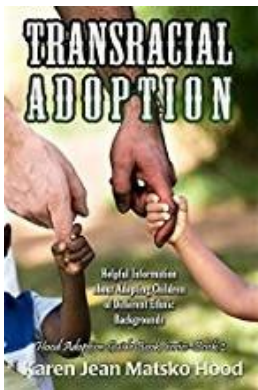

Huckleberry Delights

This cookbook is designed for easy use and is organized into sections: appetizers and dips; beverages; breads and rolls; breakfasts; cakes; candies; cookies; desserts; dressings, sauces, and condiments; jams, jellies, and syrups; main dishes; pies; preserving; salads; side dishes; soups; and wines and spirits. Enjoy reading about huckleberries, but most importantly, have fun while cooking. This is a collection of recipes gathered and modified for the Huckleberry Delights Cookbook: A Collection of Huckleberry Recipes.

EB PB

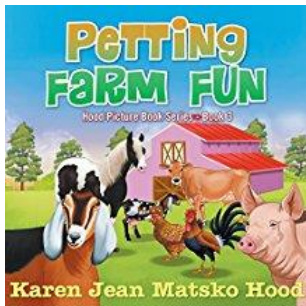

Transracial Adoption

This is a helpful book about the joys and struggles of transracial adoption, which is defined as adoption involving a child of a different race than the parents. Author Karen Jean Matsko Hood's family includes five biological children and twelve adopted from the U.S. foster system, as well as from other countries. Experience with her transracial family provides a wealth of information to those considering transracial adoption. There are books in the Hood Adoption Guidebook Series that provide helpful information.

PB

Petting Farm Fun

Petting Farm Fun is a delightful bedtime story meant to entertain and relax young children before they fall asleep. The tradition of the bedtime story has been around since before the written word. For generations, and in every culture, parents have prepared their children for bed by telling them stories. Petting Farm Fun is an enjoyable story for readers of all ages, including those who love animals and appreciate nature and farm life.

PB

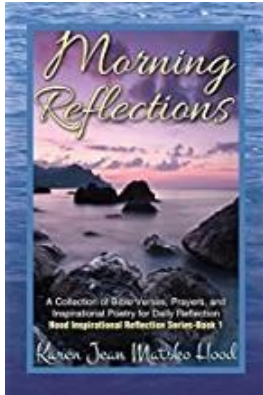

Finding Rudolph

Follow this loveable family on their fun Christmas adventures. Four brothers and sisters join together to solve the mystery of Rudolph. They're sure they have glimpsed him a couple of times, but adults won't believe them. They plan to search for evidence that Rudolph really exists and have an adventure along the way. This story will charm you and your children for generations to come. Pick one up for yourself; it also makes a great gift, too!

EB PB

Morning Reflections

Morning Reflections is a collection of powerful and inspirational reading that is dedicated to helping you begin each new day in a positive way. Christian and inspirational author and poet Karen Jean Matsko Hood has woven together poems, prayers, and Biblical verses to fill your soul and spirit with peace and understanding. Morning Reflections offers enlightenment and wisdom through blending encouraging prose and Scripture passages. This truly insightful new book of reflections makes for a perfect bedside companion or as a topic of conversation over the coffee table.

EB PB

Kevin Hostbjor

Kevin L Hostbjor grew up on the west coast (best coast) and after a long stint in the United States Navy, landed in the Pacific Northwest. Kevin recently joined Spokane Authors and lives in Spokane Valley, WA with his wife, Terri, and whippets Loki and Brewer. His short story, The Hindenbug, was published in an annual anthology by Living Springs Publishers. This year's anthology is titled "Stories Through The Ages Baby Boomers Plus 2024."

The Musher Man

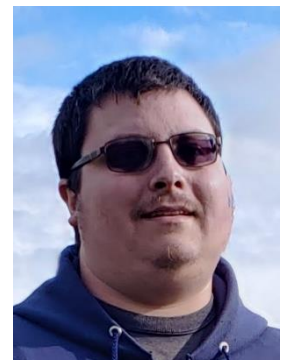

Denny and his mother, a Haitian American nurse and practitioner of the Voodoo religion of her native country, find the ideal rural homestead to begin living their dream. She wanted to follow her mother's guidance of serving women in need. Denny desired to learn about the father he never knew, a Kootenai Marine killed in Korea. They found a perfect life. Then everything changed.

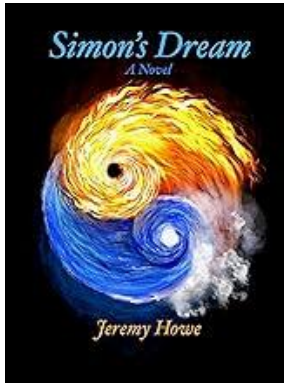

EB PB HB

Jeremy Howe

Born and raised in Spokane, Jeremy works for a major credit union. He enjoys writing and took creative writing classes in college. Simon's Dream is his first book. Visit Jeremy's website at: <https://simonsdream.blogspot.com>

Simon's Dream

Everything changes for Simon Verner when he experiences a recurring dream in which a Chicago police officer is murdered. Simon discovers he can dream of his past lives—and the murdered officer is one. No one believes him except his friend Jess, so Simon determines to solve the cold case himself. Faced with powers he has never encountered; Simon must tap into his own sense of justice and courage in order to right past wrongs.

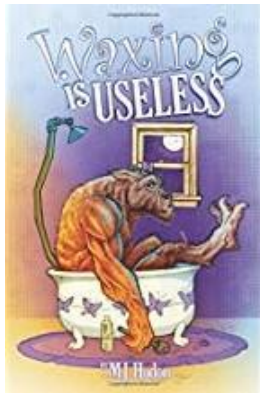

EB PB

M. J. Hudon

M. J. Hudon settled in Spokane after growing up in the Pacific Northwest. She is a lifetime Trekkie, a Christian consistently under construction, a chronic illness warrior, and her own worst critic. In her spare time, she hosts an author blog (mjsmoonbase.com) and is an officer and member of the Spokane Authors group.

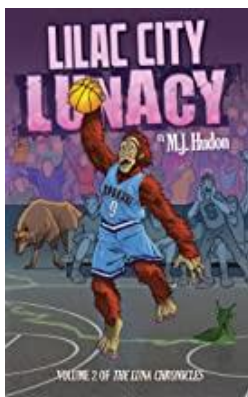

Waxing is Useless

Miranda Moon is confused. Strange things are happening, and everything seems to be going wrong. Her reality shifts when she learns of the existence of the Spokane Guardians, a pack of werewolves protecting her community against other more frightening creatures. It's enough to make a girl want to howl.

EB PB

Lilac City Lunacy

The Pack is back! The Guardians have a mystery to solve. The usually laid-back city of Spokane, Washington, has suddenly gone nuts. Whatever is causing the ruckus, it's up to the pack to put a stop to it. They have their work cut out for them, especially during this spate of Lilac City Lunacy.

EB PB

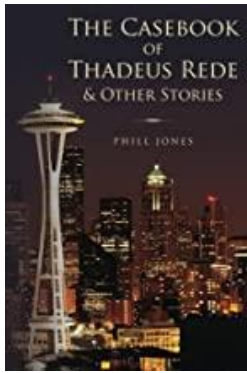

Phillip Jones

Over the years, I have worked in several fields. As a freelance writer, I wrote articles for magazines, journals, books, and newsletters. Most of my articles covered topics in the areas of science, medicine, history, law, and business. I also wrote nine books for the education market, and I taught a 12-lesson online course, Forensic Science for Writers, for seven years. My published fiction includes short stories and a novella. Most recently, I have contributed articles on chilling topics for Scary Monsters Magazine. Visit his web-sites at:

www.philljones.com www.forensics4writers.com and his author page at: www.amzn.com/e/B003ZPI81K

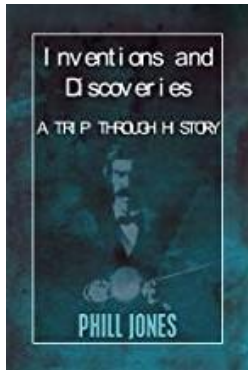

The Casebook of Thadeus Rede and Other Stories

Collected here for the first time, you'll find the published cases of Thadeus Rede, a detective of near future Seattle: the novella Thin Ice, and the short stories "The Wolf Encrypted" and "The Wolf Revealed." The collection also offers an assortment of tales starring various parasites (natural, mutant, and human) and a cranky vampire.

EB PB

Inventions and Discoveries: A Trip Through History

The book explores inventions and discoveries that shaped today's world and includes a variety of quirky topics such as the reason that Americans paid to drink radioactive water during the 1920s, why security coffins (designed to prevent premature burial) failed to catch on during the 19th century, how a flood of molasses threatened Boston, and a possible explanation for the ghost ship named the Mary Celeste.

EB PB

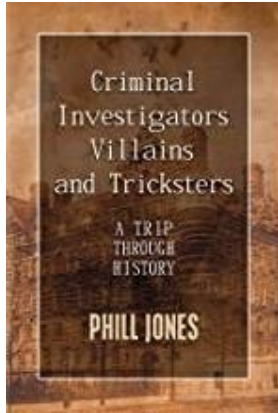

Forensic Science for Writers: A Reference Guide

Based upon my course, Forensic Science for Writers reveals how investigators analyze physical evidence. The book won a silver medal in the Writing/Publishing division of the 2013 Independent Publisher Book Awards contest.

EB PB

Criminal Investigators, Villains and Tricksters: A Trip Through History

This historical tour covers police detectives, private detectives, scientific detectives, cowboy sleuths, forensic scientists, and criminals. William Burke and William Hare, who sold freshly murdered corpses to anatomy schools, and 19th-century serial killer Herman Mudgett are among the villains. Notorious tricksters include two sisters who inspired the growth of the early American Spiritualist Movement with their cracking toe joints and two girls who convinced Sir Arthur Conan Doyle that they had photographed fairies.

EB PB

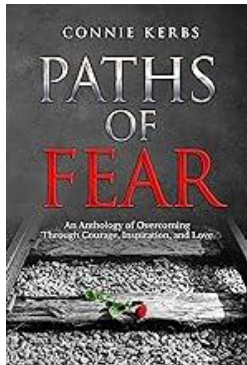

Connie Kerbs

Connie used to attend our meetings when we met at the Old Country Buffet and were known as Spokane Authors and Self-Publishers. She has recently rediscovered our organization and has joined again.

Visit Connie at: www.conniekerbs.com or www.finereadspress.com.

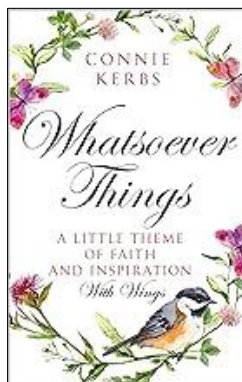

Paths of Fear

Part psychological survey, self-help, and spiritual essay, this spotlights the true antidote to fear—love, of one kind or another. It is a pleasing, poignant reveal of courage, faith, and modern knowledge balanced with age-old wisdom. Paths of Fear encourages us to rely on our best, healthy sense of true self, and a heartfelt love for others. It's a collection to inspire readers down paths of faith and hope and to encourage anyone through trials of fear they must overcome.

EB PB

Whatever Things

Whatever Things, the first title of the inspirational Vera's Verses series, is a celebration of the poetic prose that is biblical scripture. This aesthetic collection of winsome wisdom and inspiration will enchant, delight, and encourage readers of all ages. Beautiful vintage images of birds grace each cameo with a perch, nest, or flight—giving a precious moment of uplifting (and even sometimes humorous) pause and reflection.

EB PB

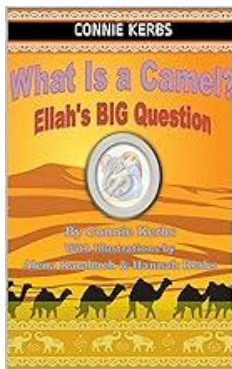

A Season for all Things

A Season For All Things: A Little Theme of Faith & Inspiration With Wings was inspired by King Solomon of the Old Testament. Both the book and the passages it highlights remind us to be patient and trust in God's timing and purposes as we move through life's various ups and downs.

PB

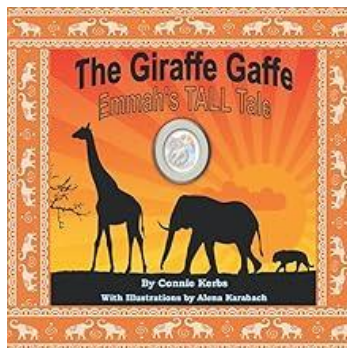

What is a Camel

What is a Camel? Emmah and Ellah, best friends, make a new discovery! Then, Emmah decides to have a little fun with her elephant friend's surprise reaction to seeing the strange shape of a camel! The games and mayhem continue, all while young readers practice their days of the week, animal habitat vocabulary words, and basic camel facts made fun! Readers also get a fun inside peek at the relationship between best friends Emmah and Ellah.

PB EB

The Giraffe Gaffe

The Giraffe Gaffe: Emmah and friends continue their fun and games. Young readers will enjoy the simple story and colorful pictures so much that they might not realize how much this little book is bursting with fun learning, from famous landmarks to animal characteristics, sure to offer joyful recognition as well as add to any young reader's vocabulary of animal facts, habitats, and characteristics.

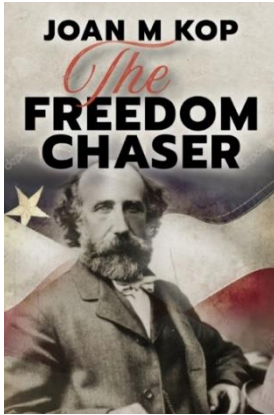

PB

Joan Kopczynski

Joan Kop grew up in the Pacific Northwest and after attending school to become a legal secretary, she was recruited by the Central Intelligence Agency, which fueled her passion for travel, adventure and learning about different cultures. She has written a memoir, Spies, Lies & Psychosis and historical fiction, The Freedom Chaser, which was a finalist in the 2020 PNWA Pearl Book Award. Her latest work is a spy thriller, The Spy from Beijing.

Freedom Chaser

An immigrant story about freedom, love and survival. In 1867, August Kopczynski, a young Polish blacksmith and farmer, is faced with poor choices—to fight in the upcoming Franco-Prussian War or be hanged if he does not. Using a false passport, he escapes to America and sets out on a journey full of hardships, ultimately realizing his dream of prosperity.

EB PB

Spies, Lies, and Psychosis

Joan had some bizarre experiences while living in San Francisco and Washington, DC. Someone sent her psychiatrist a pipe bomb in the mail in DC. It not only ruined his life, but also hers. A new psychiatrist weaned her off a drug she needed which caused her to empty out her retirement accounts, run up her credit cards and follow an old boyfriend to Florida. When she came down from her high, she ended up in poverty for the third time in her life. An unlucky roll of the dice.

EB PB

Stephen D. Lalonde

A retired teacher, Stephen has a diverse employment history, including truck and combine driver, lifeguard, custodian, mechanic, machinist, franchise developer, car salesman, musician, electronics technician, Scouting executive, teacher and union president. Primarily, he was a high school teacher for 29 years. All of these occupations influence his writing. He lives in Spokane Valley with his wife, Audrey. Visit Stephen's websites: www.stephenlalonde.us or www.ouranianpublishing.com

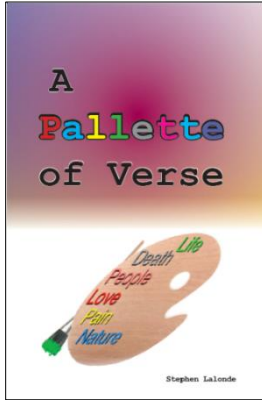

The Phoenix Gift

Mary doesn't realize at first that she is a rebel looking for a cause. Her teenage daughter and son don't need as much of her time, so she takes on the regular visit to her father-in-law who has advanced cancer and Alzheimer's. When she realizes that he is going to die with no significant memory of living she decides to research his life in an effort to give it back to him before he passes. In the process Mary discovers something that changes her life.

PB

A Palette of Verse

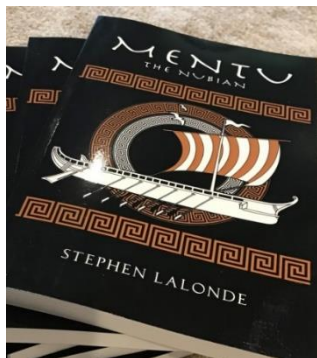

A collection of poems
PB

Sinon of Kirra

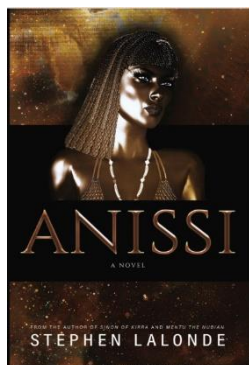

When sixteen-year-old Sinon goes to Delphi to ask the Oracle what his future will be, he is challenged by the Pythia to retrieve a legendary artifact from the end of the Black Sea. Sinon struggles with the decision to accept the challenge, finally deciding to do as the Oracle had pronounced. He takes his Nubian servant, Mentu, with him, and together they face the trials and tribulations of the physical journey as well as the emotional journey of moving from boys to men.

Mentu the Nubian

In this sequel to SINON OF KIRRA, Mentu, a newly freed slave, acquires a merchant ship, the Cyrene, and sets sail as the ship's captain for the very first time. Among his crewmates is his best friend, former master, and brother-in-arms, Sinon, who agrees to work on Mentu's ship for one year as they navigate dangerous seas, fight bloodthirsty pirates, thieves, and trade among the ports and harbors of Greece.

Anissi

In the series following Sinon of Kirra and Mentu the Nubian, Anissi barely escapes death and witnesses the abduction of her son, and destruction of her village. Driven by an unbridled rage, she becomes a deadly warrior. With the help of two girls who saved her from the clutches of death, she exacts revenge against the invaders who destroyed her life. Now, Anissi vows to find her son, Mentu, and secure his freedom from slavery.

Strymon

Strymon's life is a mystery, even to him. From a strange beginning, a powerful woman helps him to see the world as he pursues the life of a sailor. He finds ways to earn the admiration of those around him as he travels the world and grows in wisdom through his adventures. Strymon makes one decision that continues to haunt him through the years. He is stunned to find that a prophecy involves him in one of many strange twists that transform his life: a life that profoundly affects so many others.

To Teach

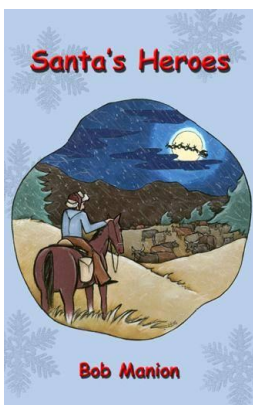

This compelling blend of memoir and treatise into the art and science of teaching offers readers an intimate journey through the profound experiences of award-winning educator Stephen Lalonde. Lalonde's memoir is a reflective and thought-provoking narrative journey into the heart of teaching and learning. He shares the invaluable lessons learned along the way, treating readers to not just the methods and strategies of a successful teacher but the profound impact a lifelong commitment to education can have on one's perspective on life.

Bob Manion

Bob Manion lives in Spokane, Washington. He served in the U. S. Marines from 1958 to 1964 with Fleet Marine Force Pacific and as a Marine Security Guard at the United States Embassy, Athens, Greece. In the Reserves he was a Chief Warrant Officer in artillery. He later served as an Intelligence Officer and Assistant Operations Officer. He retired in 1998 while on duty with 1st Marine Expeditionary Force. Bob has published several novels and is a member of several organizations relating to his Marine Corps service and writing.

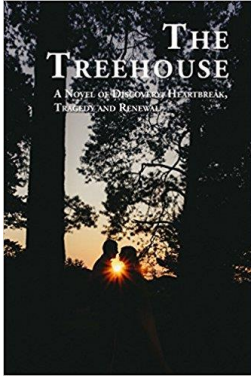

Santa's Heroes

Toy shortages, reindeer accidents and reindeer flu are a few of the challenges facing Santa Claus and his friends. Santa's Heroes include Pegasus, Hercules' flying white horse and rider Tami, who solves the case of Santa's missing magic bag. There are flying sled dogs, a cowboy and his horse, Clyde the house mouse, and Murphy a well-meaning green gremlin among Santa's Heroes and magical friends.

PB

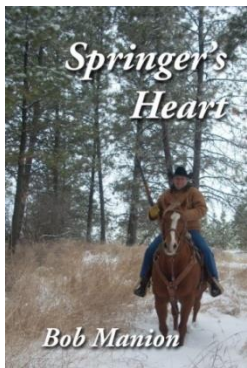

The Tree House

Jon and Kathy, summer playmates at Priest Lake since the age of four have progressed to a young adult relationship. They are torn apart and expect to be rejoined. Jon looks for Kathy on the street, in stores everywhere during his life's journey. Kathy, now a successful attorney waits. Jon cannot give his heart to another. His heart is no longer his to give.

PB

Springer's Heart

Retired Marine, foreman on a Montana Cattle Ranch raised three children after his wife Lori was killed. He and his son Brent meet Bess and Bev Clemons. Bess runs a children's home, and Bev teaches elementary school. Two romances develop. Hank fosters three orphaned children under Bess' care. He buys land, builds a ranch, and combines three families into one. Rustlers, attempted murder, and the attempted rape of Hank's foster daughter tighten the family bond.

PB

Summer Rain

Sara Bennett is a smokejumper based near Winthrop, Washington. After a serious she transfers to the Federal Fish and Wildlife Service as a Ranger. Randy Springer, youngest son of Hank Springer, is supervisor for the Winthrop area. She is a National Rifle Match marksman and teaches marksmanship. A romance with a local doctor fails. Sara takes steps to become a permanent Ranger. Together they hunt down a terrorist cell, using unauthorized procedures. When they visit the Springer Ranch, another challenge presents itself.

PB

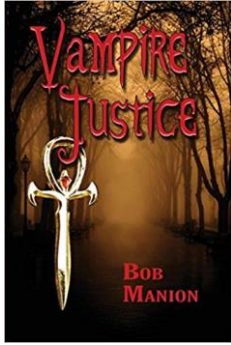

Sabrina's Promise

Doctor Sabrina Springer joined the Navy Medical Corps to serve at the Naval Hospital on Camp Pendleton. Having promised her father, retired Marine Gunner Hank Springer, to care for of his Marines, Sabrina challenged rules detrimental to her patients. Patients were her first responsibility, and she instilled her values and work ethic into those working with her. She was a leader, and attention to duty placed her in harm's way. She sets her own safety and life aside, but love finds a way even in war.

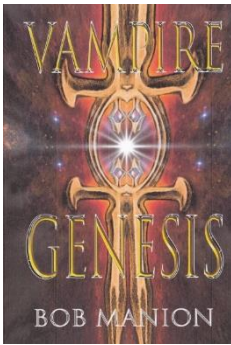

PB

Vampire Justice (originally Vampire and the Cop)

Sgt. Alyson Taylor, Seattle Police and Eric LeDuc, Private Detective and Vampire, join to solve heinous ritual murders. They find love in the war between Eric's grandfather, Demon Master Marius, and his grandmother, Vampire Queen Selma, an original vampire created by Hindu goddesses Kali and Durga. Other supernatural beings aid Selma to bring to justice for crimes against Vampires and Humans.
PB

Vampire Genesis

This is a prequel to Vampire Justice and deals with the beginning of the Vampire race, how it came about, and how an orphan teen became Queen of the Vampires. Actions by Hindu Goddesses against an invading army cause many of the vampires' supernatural gifts and generate laws governing a race of long-lived people. Many characters were introduced in Vampire Justice. The primary protagonist is still Selma, who deals with the tragedies of her life while attempting to live a normal, for a vampire, life.
PB

Sandy Mason

Sandy has been a member of Spokane Authors for several years. She writes children's books and more, has published two books and has more in the works. Sandy is pictured here with a Pulaski Tool, developed by the subject of her book, Into the Fire.

N is for Nativity

This is a fully illustrated children's alphabet book about the birth of Jesus and the Christmas Season. Illustrated by Natalie J. Apodaca.
PB

Into the Fire

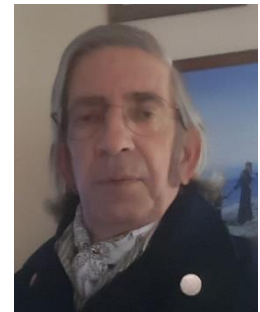

Ed Pulaski, inspired by vivid letters from his uncle about the Wild West, wanted some adventures of his own. He left home at age 15, crossed the continent alone, and arrived in the Idaho mining country when he was 16. A hero in the making, his adventure turned to horror; his truly was a trial by fire.

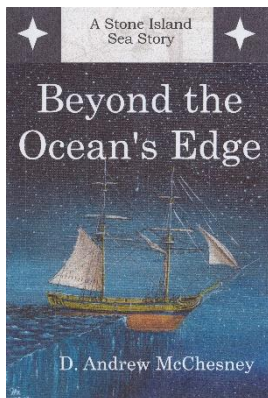

PB

D. Andrew McChesney

Known by his friends and fellow authors as Dave, he served 22 years as a US Navy aviation electronics technician. He combines a lifelong interest in the age of sail with science fiction in The Stone Island Sea Stories. He resides in Spokane, Washington, with his wife Eva, Stormie, a Blue Quaker parrot, and Coco, a miniature dachshund. www.stoneislandseastories.com

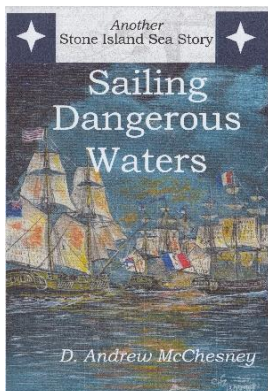

Beyond the Ocean's Edge: A Stone Island Sea Story

At the beginning of the Nineteenth Century, Royal Navy Lieutenant Edward Pierce and the crew of HMS Island Expedition searched for a legendary island that was not on any map. Sail headlong into mistaken identities, strange truces, dangerous liaisons, international intrigue, superstition, and ancient prophecies.

PB EB

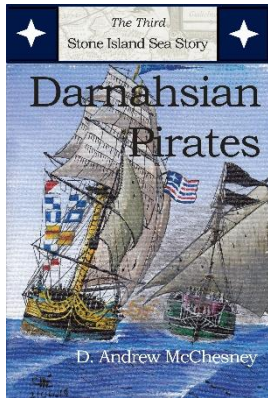

Sailing Dangerous Waters: Another Stone Island Sea Story

All Edward Pierce and the men of HMS Island Expedition want is to return to their world and England. Obligations, weather, a jealous frigate captain, a marauding privateer, and a former shipmate stand in their way. Will Pierce be reunited with his beloved Evangeline?

EB PB

Darnahsian Pirates: The Third Stone Island Sea Story

Having returned to Stone Island, Pierce leads a combined naval expedition charged with rescuing several Vespican governors held for ransom by the Darnahsian Pirates. Among them is Harold Smythe, Evangeline's beloved Papa.

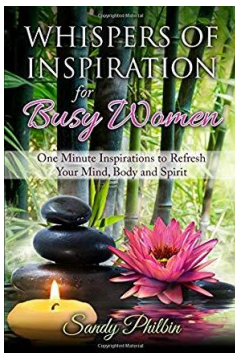

EB PB

Sandy Philbin

Sandy has been in the health and fitness industry for several decades. Personal challenges with anxiety evolved into a passion to encourage women to practice self-care and live a healthy and purposeful life through natural restorative practices for the mind, body, and spirit. www.sandyphilbin.com

Whispers of Inspiration for Busy Women

Many women want to relax and find relief from stress. Yet they do not set aside time for restoration. These Spirit-inspired one-minute inspirations, based on life experiences, were written to help you on your journey to self-care. Some may serve as a catalyst for change. May your spirit be refreshed and your life be blessed!

PB

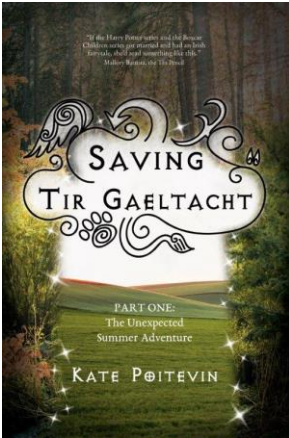

Kate Poitevin

Kate lives in Spokane, Washington and belongs to the Tin Pencil Writers Group and Spokane Authors. A retired Regional Chieftain in the Irish Clan Cian, she spent many weekends at Highland Games. Kate considers herself blessed to have the best friends in the world.

<https://katepoitevin.wixsite.com/katepoitevin>

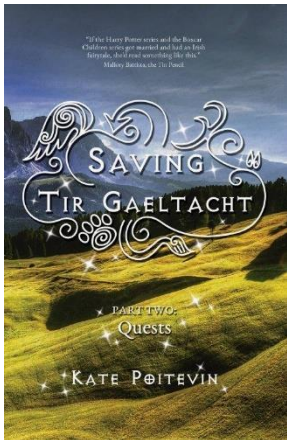

Saving Tir Gaeltacht: The Unexpected Summer Adventure

When Taylor, Jordan, and Zach run after their little brother, Zayne, they go through a portal to another world. Their arrival has been anticipated, and they're expected to save this world. Can they, with the help of a Dragon, a Gryffin, a Winged Horse, a White Stag, and a Giant Wolfe, restore the rightful ruler to the throne?

EB PB

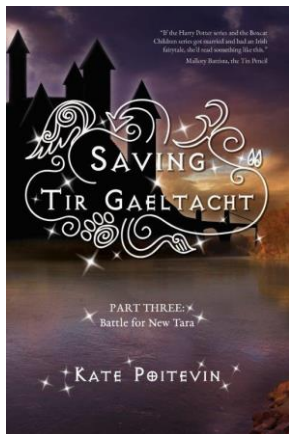

Saving Tir Gaeltacht: Quests

Taylor, Jordan, Zach, Zayne, and Cousin Gabe have been in Tir Gaeltacht for six days, and each has a mission. Signs point to a battle for the fate of Tir Gaeltacht. The children and their friends prepare for the war they must win if they hope to return home.

EB PB

Saving Tir Gaeltacht: Battle for New Tara

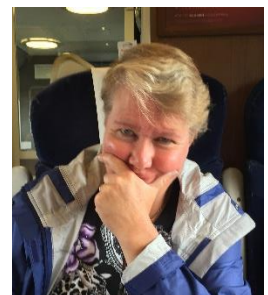

Taylor, Jordan, Zach, Zayne, and Cousin Gabe, their bond-mates, and their friends prepare to fight for Tir Gaeltacht by laying siege to New Tara and restoring the rightful king to the throne. The powerful sorceress controlling the castle has cast an evil blight upon the land and commands its darkest creatures. Can they win back the kingdom and make it safely home?

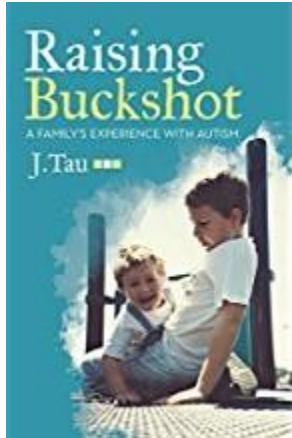

PB EB

Johanna Price (J. Tau)

Johanna has been a member of Spokane Authors for several years. Writing as J. Tau, she has detailed her family's progress and setbacks in raising an autistic child. J. Tau writes in Spokane, Washington, where she lives with her family and two magnificent mousers.

Raising Buckshot: A Family's Experience with Autism

Their second child, Gareth, weighed over nine pounds, was healthy, but wasn't like other babies. They eventually realized Gareth's strange behaviors were more serious. At five, he was diagnosed with Pervasive Developmental Disorder, a form of autism. They finally had a name for his tantrums and defiance, but the battle was far from over. Understanding his mental state and abilities allowed the family to better understand his unique needs. With humor and hope, J. Tau recounts the trials and victories of bringing up her autistic son.

EB PB HB

Debby Putman

Debby was born in Santa Monica, CA and now lives in Liberty Lake, Washington. She is creating Darcy and Dawn's Impossible Adventures, a series illustrated by her eldest son, Ryan Francis Peirce, and a website developed by her middle son, Jeffery Peirce. These stories are for those kids who just need an adventurous story to spark a lifelong interest in reading. Visit Debby at: www.darcyanddawns.com
See her Facebook page at: Darcy & Dawn's Impossible Adventures

Darcy and Dawn's Impossible Adventures: The Swedish King's Gold

We currently do not have any description of this or any other book in this series.

J. B. Rivard

Rivard's writing draws on wide experience. He served in the U.S. Navy, graduated from the University of Florida, and worked as a newspaper reporter and magazine writer. Recently, with Anya Carlson, he's completed the screenplay adaptation of his novel, Illusions of Magic, and their book, Illusions of Magic: The Movie. He now resides in Arizona. www.illusionsofmagic.com

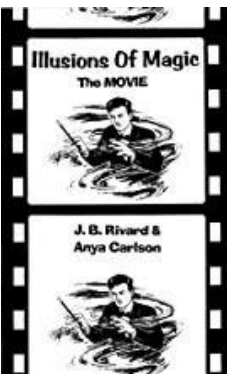

Illusions of Magic

A magician short of bookings! A banker with a secret! A woman missing for 20 years! In Illusions of Magic, a rich and devious banker engages magician Nick Zetner to retrieve compromising photos. Along the way, Nick regains a love he thought he'd forever lost. As Chicago reels from the fatal wounding of its mayor by a bullet meant for Franklin D. Roosevelt, love and duty clash, and the quest risks Nick's magic and then turns deadly.

EB PB

Illusions of Magic: The Movie

From the gritty streets to the smoky back rooms where 1933 Chicago's future is to be decided, this rocket read unveils the magician's perilous quest and the excitement of his recovered love during Mayor Cermak's final nineteen days. Using the mind's eye, aural keys, and an easy-to-follow format, the text encourages a cinematic experience of the story taken from Rivard and Carlson's screenplay adaptation of the acclaimed novel.

EB PB

Low on Gas – High on Sky

Long before the days of jets, noted Spokane pilot Nick Mamer and co-pilot Art Walker set an awe-inspiring record. They flew from Spokane, Washington to San Francisco, to New York, and from New York back to Spokane—without landing. This is the true story of the 1929 flight—during which their airplane was again and again refueled in the air with ropes and hose—by other daring airmen flying wood-and-fabric biplanes.

AB EB PB

Dead Heat to Destiny

Three young citizens of Belgium, Germany and the U.S. are catapulted into the European maelstrom of the First World War. This novel compellingly follows four people across three continents in an intensely emotional yet stunningly realistic tale of belief, duty, love, and courage. Global tension escalates. Will, Adrienne, Gregor, and the spy must fight for their beliefs. In the riveting conclusion—with life and love in the balance—these four lives converge in an unanticipated, epic clash.

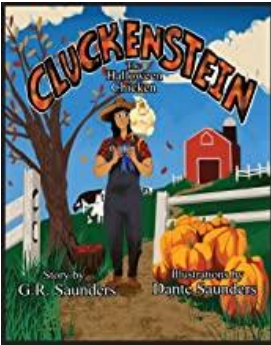

EB PB

G. R. Saunders

G.R. Saunders grew up in a house full of books and music and has been reading and writing since her childhood. She believes childhood should be a magic time full of wonder, discovery, and learning, a time for dreaming and enjoying the world of imagination, when animals can talk, sing, and dance, a time for hopes and dreams. She holds degrees from Western Carolina University, the University of Texas, and Eastern Washington University. She enjoys sewing, knitting, and is active in animal welfare causes.

Cluckenstein: The Halloween Chicken

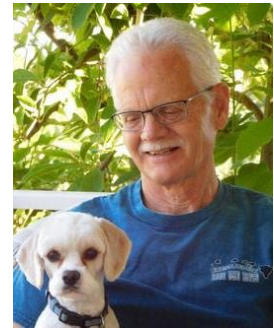

Children of all ages will love this story of Cluckenstein, a brave little chicken who tries to fit in and gets picked on because she's different. Come visit the wonderful world of Cluckermore Farms, where chickens can talk, sing, and dance, and dreams can come true. Any child who has ever felt left out and lonely will identify with Cluckenstein and rejoice at her eventual triumph.

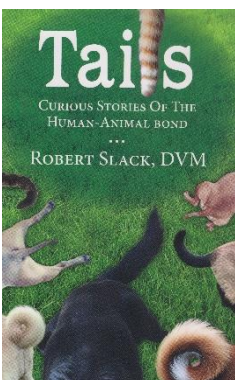

PB

Bob Slack, DVM

Robert Slack spent his boyhood in Helena, Montana and later in Hawaii. Bob attended Washington State University, graduating with honors from the College of Veterinary Medicine in 1971. He began his veterinary career in Sydney and later in Perth, Australia. He returned to the U. S. to join a small animal practice in Spokane, Washington. He returned to college to pursue his interest in human behavioral science and earned a degree in counseling. Blending these two careers gives Bob a rich and unique perspective on the miracle of the human-animal bond. www.petsforlife.com

Tails: Curious Stories of the Human-Animal Bond

Humans have been blessed with four-legged companions so willing to accept us and help us be better people. Dr. Slack draws on 35 years of veterinary practice to explore the wonderful mystery of human-animal bonding. He writes of clients' pets touching their lives, the magical ways the bond brings joy into our human world. Through our pets, we humans learn how to be our best selves, for all those we love, both human and animal.

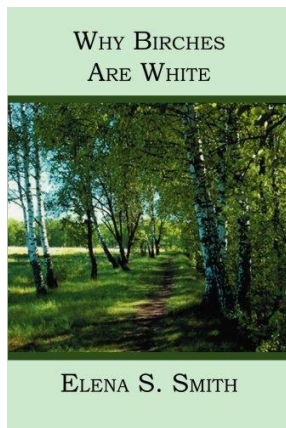

PB

Elena Smith

Elena S. Smith emigrated from St. Petersburg, Russia and became a U.S. citizen in 1996. She holds a PhD in linguistics and has taught English, film, and culture abroad and in American universities for over thirty years. She published a fiction-documentary novel, Why Birches Are White, in 2006, and her second novel Truths and Lies, in 2023. She is currently working on a collection of short stories about her extraordinary dog, Tucker. Visit Elena online on Amazon: <https://www.amazon.com/author/elenasmith-romance-novels>

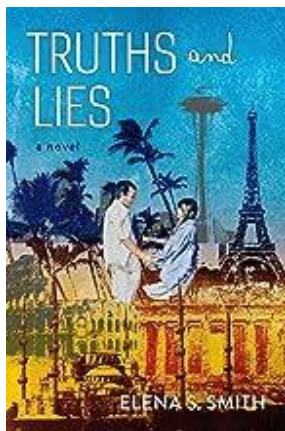

Why Birches are White

Why Birches Are White reveals the power of a glance to change the orderly lives of an American man and a Russian woman. It is a realistic portrayal of Russian life and a fresh reaction to America's present. In the summer of 1987, Americans and Russians walked from Leningrad to Moscow for Peace. Two of the walkers' discovery that they were 'kindred spirits' proved the foundation for a friendship that endured in spite of many cultural differences. Unexplainable forces dramatically bring them together again and again.

EB PB

Truths and Lies

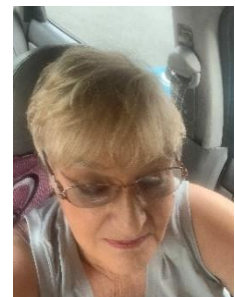

After a bitter divorce, Vickie swears off men, content with her newfound freedom despite the boredom. Her distrust of men runs deep, viewing them all as liars and losers. One evening, after a few glasses of wine, a friend convinces her to try online dating. Horrified by what she finds, Vickie is about to delete her account when a single profile catches her eye. She sends a message, setting her life on an unexpected new path. What follows is a journey that will shape the future of two people navigating a landscape of lies and truths, searching for happiness. Truths and Lies received the International Impact Book Award in July 2024.

EB PB

Linda Sonntag

Linda is a poet and has been a member of Spokane Authors for several years. Her quirky poems bring a little slice of humor into everyday life struggles, and several of them are featured in Celebrating Spokane Authors, the anthology published by the organization in 2017. She recently published a memoir.

Dandelion

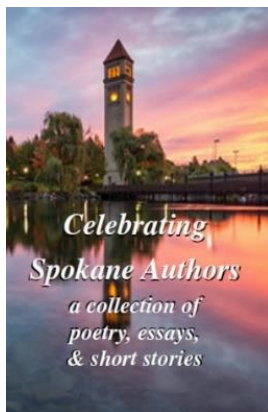

Dandelion chronicles the author's life as she battles one trauma after another... being hit by a car while riding her tricycle, the death of her older sister, being bullied in grade school, being sexually abused at twelve, and being sent to a boarding school at fifteen. She often made poor choices about relationships and sometimes overused pills and alcohol. Despite more than her share of tragedies, she has made some good choices, including her first husband, Vince, the father of her children, who later was very supportive. Over her life, with many trials and tribulations, she has had a fierce belief that God has helped her thrive and survive. PB

Spokane Authors

Spokane Authors and Self-Publishers held its first public meeting November 1998. The founders want members to share experiences, expertise, and resources for mutual benefit. Now known simply as Spokane Authors, membership includes writers, poets, photographers, artists, illustrators, and those attempting traditional as well as self-publishing.

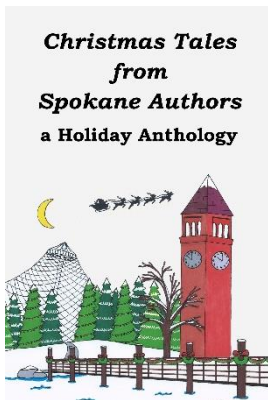

Celebrating Spokane Authors

This collection of poetry, essays, and short stories by members of what was then Spokane Authors and Self-Publishers was made available to the public in 2017.

EB PB

Christmas Tales From Spokane Authors

Here is the latest collection and collaboration of stories from members of Spokane Authors, just in time for the Holiday Season. Initially available as a paperback it will soon be available as an e-book.

Shandra Tanner

Shandra works in an elementary school. She has loved art and drawing as long as she can remember and turned her passion into a dream come true. Shandra did artwork for Nathaniel Bennett's children's book, including a full-color cover and pen and ink drawings in the interior. She contributed the front cover art for Christmas Tales from Spokane Authors and illustrated stories in that book by Kevin Hostbjoer and Denise and D. J. Guy.

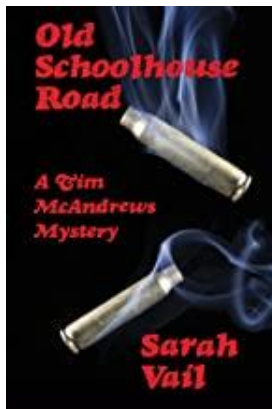

Sarah Vail

Sarah Vail spent forty years in private industry before retiring to Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, to write mystery-suspense fiction. She has taken classes in Creative writing, Copy Editing, Criminal Justice, Forensic Science, Criminology, Criminal Interrogation, Weapons Handling, and World History. An award-winning author, she attends many West Coast Writing Conferences. She is an active board member of Bitterroot Mountain Publishing Company. www.sarahvailauthor.com

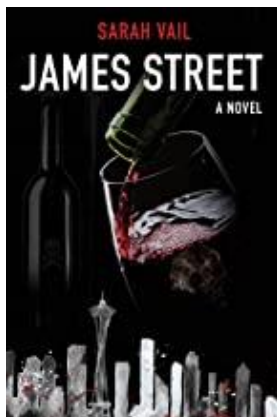

Old Schoolhouse Road

A shooting at a small-town school. Tim McAndrews is assigned to the FBI team sent to the crime scene. When evidence doesn't fit a typical school shooter, Tim theorizes the subject is someone with military or law enforcement experience, maybe one of their own. Tim and the profiling team must identify the shooter despite interference from a news reporter, a politician, and pressure from a powerful supervisory special agent. Evidence leads to a dark and twisted world of illicit drugs and abuse, an insidious motive for murder, and villains they never expected. EB PB HB

James Street

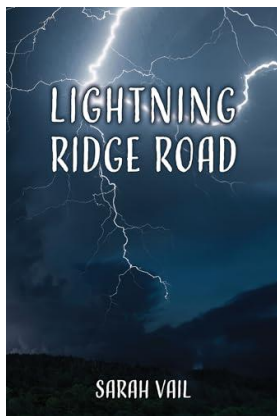

Tim McAndrews is his office's top prosecutor. At his office, he finds Medical Examiner Kathy Hope, a longtime friend waiting for him. Along with Detective Scott Renton, she delivers grim news. Two young women have died of a toxic mix of antidepressants and alcohol. Is a serial killer stalking the streets of Seattle? They follow the evidence, putting together a jigsaw puzzle of pure evil. Tim pursues his dream of home and family but love and murder collide, and he realizes he's not the only one interested in Daniela St. Clair. EB PB HB

Snow Country Lane

While Tim McAndrews is on vacation at Schweitzer Mountain Ski Resort, a young girl is abducted, and Tim is drawn into the intrigue. This girl isn't the only child in danger. Six-year-old twin boys were abducted and murdered. Rainbow-colored duct tape Tim finds maybe the one clue tying these kidnappings together. Elias Cain convinces the Seattle DA to loan Tim to his profiling team. Tim and friends are chasing a child trafficking ring that's like an octopus with tentacles reaching everywhere. To take down this monster, Tim must put his life on the line. EB PB HB

Lightning Ridge Road

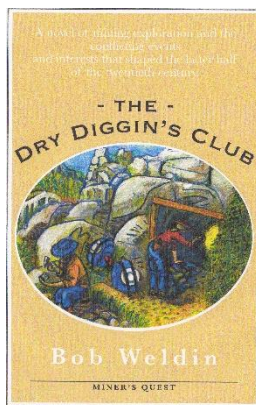

Nine-year-old Jamie Randall stops to play and collect crawfish and notices people dumping trash down the creek's embankment. But it's a body. Jamie runs. When he doesn't return for lunch, his frantic mother calls the police. The Sheriff, fearing the worst, contacts the FBI. Special Agents Tim McAndrews, Miguel Gonzales, and their team respond. A homicide complicates the search for the boy, who McAndrews believes witnessed the body dump and is in extreme danger. McAndrews and his team must find the boy before the killers do. EB PB HB

Bob Weldin

Bob has been a lumberjack, rancher, and miner. He graduated from the University of Idaho College of Mines and has done postgraduate work in geology and related subjects at Eastern Washington State University and other colleges in the Spokane area. He went to work for the U.S. Bureau of Mines as a mining engineer in 1960. He soon rose to the position of Chief, Branch of Engineering and Economic Analysis, and retired in 1990 as Chief, Branch of Mineral Resource Evaluations.

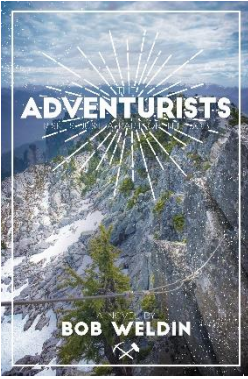

The Dry Diggin's Club

The DRY DIGGIN'S CLUB started as a documentary about the author's wilderness experiences and fellow field geologists. It ultimately became a historical novel when the author found it awkward to write history about characters who are still alive. It's a story of adventure, risk taking, romance and intrigue by a group of young mining professionals, including a female geologist breaks into the all-male domain of exploration geology, and helps create a clandestine club that networks for pleasure and economic advantage.

PB

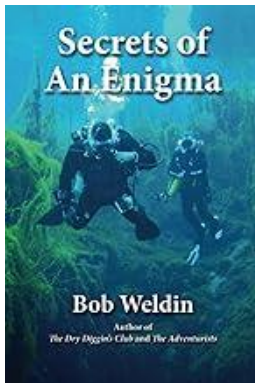

The Adventurists

Danger, romance and intrigue follow Sara and Brad through the Idaho Primitive Area and the treacherous canyon of the Middle Fork of the Salmon River. They sometimes stray from their planned work to search for a lost gold mine or prospect for gemstones in the rugged Sawtooth Mountains. In the summer of 1967, there is no GPS, cell phones or laptops. They work in pairs but often split up to cover more territory. They carry Brunton compasses, used to map mineral deposits, but also are used to find their way back to camp or to the nearest road out.

PB

Secrets of an Enigma

A wealthy retired judge offers three beautiful ex-wives of criminals sanctuary at his mystery mansion, which is equipped with chain-link fences and a heavily armed bodyguard. The judge is threatened by the early release of prisoners who have sworn revenge. The three ladies, haunted by their past, become part of the judge's business and get romantically involved with a young geologist, a one-eyed private investigator, and an oil-rich rancher.

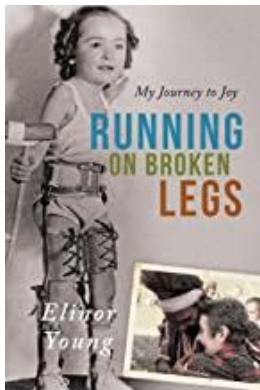

EB PB

Elinor Young

Elinor was nine when she first thought about working overseas, but weakened by polio, it seemed like an impossible dream. In 1973, Elinor reached Papua, Indonesia, to begin linguistics, translation, and community development work among the primitive Kimyal people. During her nearly 17 years there, the tribe named her Bad Legs, saying her bad legs symbolized God's love for them. Now retired, Elinor writes, speaks, mentors, and recently published her memoir. www.elinoryoung.com

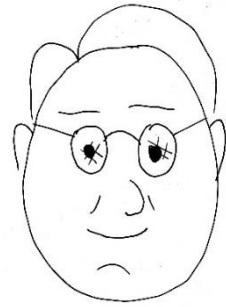

Running on Broken Legs: My Journey to Joy

Give five-year-old Elinor polio that cripples and nearly kills her, as well as an impossible dream. Embracing the dream, she goes to a primitive, rugged place and a life brawny international explorers would envy. For 18 years, Elinor deals with murdering tribal people, a devastating earthquake, and the following relief efforts, joys, triumphs, and friendship with the Kimyal people. After the effects of polio forced her to leave the place and people her heart embraced, in Kimyal fashion, Elinor told the story, which pictures a profound truth: our weaknesses can be the conduit of strength beyond our own. EB PB

Michael Zargona

Michael Zargona is the pen name of a member of Spokane Authors. He writes Speculative Fiction.

Turn Red Tomorrow

Tomorrow, the world we know screeches to a halt. In the near future, America is coming apart at the seams. An extended family and friends attempt to reunite and overcome the dangers faced along the way. The world financial system is obliterated overnight, and characters from all walks of life face physical, emotional, and moral struggles that test their beliefs, relationships, and their will to survive. Many fall in with a mysterious benefactor who shows a path to a restored America. Will they succeed or simply join the nameless millions who have already succumbed to disease, starvation, and violence?

EB PB HB

Sixteen Hooves Thunder

Sixteen Hooves Thunder picks up where Turn Red Tomorrow left off, with central characters captured, dead, or on the run in an America mired in perpetual martial law after a devastating financial collapse. Follow their stories during the most anticipated—and dreaded—period in human history: the early stages of the Biblical Tribulation, where one charismatic leader, appearing to have all the answers, seizes control of the entire world with the promise of peace but leaves only destruction and death in his wake.

EB PB HB

The Sunset of All Sorrows

Follow diverse characters through the final years of Biblical Tribulation in a world where nearly all have pledged their lives and worship to the indwelt Antichrist who seeks to capture, kill, and destroy the small remnant who choose to follow his eternal enemy, Jesus Christ. As the judgments of Revelation are realized, the world descends into complete chaos as the totalitarian system created by the Antichrist and his followers crumbles and falls. Billions die in the process. But God—as always—is true to His promise that some of the faithful will survive despite His wrath.

EB PB HB

Books by Recent and Past members

- Armsbury, Chuck: Odyssey of a Mother Country Radical
- Barber, Devin: Cosmic Journeys
- Barr, M. Kari: Once Again Tales of Destiny, They Came From the Sea, Thinktacular Thoughts, Rain on Me, Arcadium Autum Emporium: Tales of the Gate Keeper, Life is Tough
- Bennett, Jim: Once A Marine...
- Bergman, Julie: Sahar's Creation/ Fatal Creation/ The Fatal Family Affair
- Bradford, Gena: I Can't Rest Now, Lord! I'm Responsible...
- Bratcher, T. A.: The Road Chosen
- Brockett, Don: The Tyrannical Rule of the U. S. Supreme Court
- Brown, Andy: Warnings Unheeded: Twin Tragedies at Fairchild Air Force Base
- Brown, Melvin: Flew-Bayou, Good Intentions, It Started in Sitka, Poor Choices: A Jim and Vladimer Novel, The Sanctamooja and Me, Slate Creek Gold
- Campbell, B. J.: Close Calls: The True Tales of Cougar Bob
- Carter, Joan D.: Gray Swallow
- Carter, Kylea: Out of the Sand
- Christine, Helen (Foster): Full Disclosure, The Lenders: A Novel About Mortgage Fraud
- Church, John: Pasadena Cowboy - Growing up in Southern California and Montana 1925 to 1947
- Clark, Gregory: Ashes of Arson, Arson Revisited, Arson and Opioids, Arson's Revenge, Arson's Exit
- Cline, Lauri "Midge": Prey to the Order: An aon Lah Hathra Adventure, Wyndham Hall, Shadow Blades (The BREED Fae Chronicles)
- Cohen, Asia: Fire of Thorns
- Critchlow, George: Travels with Vamper: A Graybeard's Journey, The Lifer and the Lawyer
- Dabill, Azalea: Falcon Dagger, Falcon Ode, Nightshade and Knitbone
- DeHart, Phoebe "Peggy": Chronicles of a Western Family, Vols. 1-2, Cheechako
- Des Autel, Ed: III Minutes to XII: The Last Secrets of the Bible
- Dorfman, Allen: Reaching: A Vietnam War Novel
- Drake, Annette: Celebration House, Bone Girl (aka Trombone Girl), A Year with Geno
- Duryea, Cindy: The Wall
- Dymond, Al-Jack: Willow, Horses, Cattle and Men
- Estes, Karen: Plane of the Ecliptic
- Eastwood, Harland: A Sacrifice Not Forgotten, Adams County Tokens, Barracks Buddies of the 249th, Bread Basket, Here Comes the Judge, Herr Kanzler's Kinder, Last Stage to Pasco, Lost, Mercantile Memories, Mystery at Kanzler Bros., Nothing but Up, Ordinary People, Pioneer Days on Crab Creek, Ritzville Auto History, Ritzville Round Up, Sixteen Missions over Germany, Taku Memories, Welcome to Ritzville, Welcome to Ritzville, vol II, Wild West Saloons, Northwest Maritime Sampler
- Ferguson, Bill: The Queen Street Kids and Some Fishy Tails (Poetry Too)
- Freeman, Elmer: Those Navy Guys and Their PBY's: The Aleutian Solution
- Goodwin, Anna: Forbidden Justice
- Hamilton, Orania: Cries of the Soul
- Heffernan, John: Not One Drop of Blood
- Hemmingsmoore, Sidney: Health Secrets of the Bible
- Hillebrand, Timothy S.: The Perfect Home Business List Business Manual
- Hughes, Terry: Burning Paradise
- Jessett, Fred: My Name is Tamar: A Tale from Ancient Canaan, Drummer Loves Dancer: She Has Secrets. He Has Hope, Getting Past Point No Point (Nine Stories with Meaning), Love's Arithmetic is Different: A Novel

SPOKANE AUTHORS: OUR MEMBERS' BOOKS

- Jorgensen, Ann: Kitchen Basics 101
- Kowal, Patricia: Stillpoint
- Langelier, Lisa: The Wild Eye
- Lehman, Col. Chuck: Angels Three Six, The Big Woods, Asher, Lazarus Arise, The Shepherd, Rogue 6, Exposure: A Story of Survival and Intrigue, Double Exposure, The Apostle's Wife, Saguario Speak
- Leon, Rich: Nature Exploring in Eastern Washington and North Idaho
- Linn, Joy: I've Been Born Again, Ten Keys to Freedom
- Marsden, Michael A.: The House in Harrison, The Man in the Closet, A Walk in the Rain
- Meline, Lewis: Lies Exposed! The Truth about Dieting, Supplements, Weight Loss, and Exercise
- Mongar, Sonja: Two Spoons of Bitter
- Ochse, Bobbie Colliton: Nana's Magic Closet
- O'Connor, Charles: Fortuisms, Rhymes and Reason & Missed Fortunes and Other Calamities
- Parks, Stan: Jakob's Ladies, Jakob's Legacy
- Parry, James Bartlett: Book All the Teachers: An Irreverent Ride through Middle School
- Pillsbury, Robert: Crossroads: Stories and Essays from a Wandering Mind
- Prince, Juanita: An Amazing Journey to Health
- Quint, Peter M.: Resilient Silence
- Rae, Kathy: The Jewel of Hope: Book 1: The Hope Trilogy, Ducky Day or Yucky Day... You Choose, Deprogramming a Bully: Book 1: The Barber Chair Series
- Reynolds, Dave: Not Forgotten
- Robinson, Loren: Hold Until Spring
- Roloff, Jim: Mending God's Creatures: True Stories of a Small-Town Veterinarian
- Saty, Molly: Put Sparklers on my Grave
- Seebaum, Joyce: I Know Your Secrets, Dad
- Sheafor, Marian: Alive! Alive!
- Smart, Steve: Whispers of the Greybull, Vanishing Raven, The Assassin's Key
- Spitzer, Wayne Kyle: Coffin Road, Comes a Ferryman, Far Away Nearby, Flashback: The Devil's Shambhala, Flashback: Dawn Naaygi, Flashback, Flying the Fog Roads of Cascadia, How About a Coke And Some Fries, Killer in the Looking Glass, Lean Season, Napoleon, Red Marillion, That Thing We Killed, The Pierced Veil, The Tempter and the Taker... and more
- Stackelberg, Roderick: Out of Hitler's Shadow
- Stinson, Jim: Remembering the "B"
- Streeter, Natalie: Submissive Rose
- Stultz, Mike: Wings of Ice
- Tschirgi, Niki Breaser: Growing Up Alaska, Stretchmark My Heart
- Vasquez, James: Men Who Knew Jesus Well, Women of the Bible: Their Stories in Verse, Prophets of the Old Testament: A Classic Collection of Biblical Heroes in Verse, Words Jesus Spoke – In Verse, The Psalms – In Verse, Prayers from the Bible – In Classic Verse
- Verhoef, Margaret Albi and Seedorf, Rita Gard: Letters from Brackham Wood: A Moira Edwards Mystery, Letters from a Wary Watcher: A Moira Edwards Walker Mystery
- Vollmer, Dan: Crossing America by Water, Toy Boats And Other Boating Short Stories, Folksongs, Poetry & Nursery Rhymes by Unknown Authors
- Waldrip, Sherry: I Don't Remember Signing Up For Cancer
- Tom Wallace: To Kill a Poacher: A Psychological Case Study in Empathic Health and Applied Spirituality

SPOKANE AUTHORS: OUR MEMBERS' BOOKS

Wickes, Diana: Home Is Where the Heart Is, Elegy to My Montanan: A Widow's Song

Wilkins, Emily: African Rice Heart

Wilkins, Joyce: Teacup Art ... and Reflections, Walking Sticks: Wanderings and Wonderings

Williams, D. A.: It's Conspiracy by any Name, Just an Average Dilemma, Bishop's Revenge, The Blue Butterfly Tattoo

Wood, Stanley A.: Four Eyes

Wright, Nancy A.: Yankee on the Yangtze