The Musher Man

1963153006 B0CQV5ZPFN

Set in the late 1960's Montana, The Musher Man brings a Jack the Ripper character into a Jack London winter wilderness environment.

Denali (Denny) Darkcloud and his mother, a Haitian American voodoo nurse, find the perfect rural homestead to start the life they always wanted. She could follow her families practice of serving women in need, while Denny learns the intricacies of healthcare and gains the friendship and responsibility of caring for nine sled trained dogs.

Life was perfect, until Denny witnessed the brutal murder of his mother. He escaped the killer's wrath, via dogsled through a snowstorm.

After reporting the murder, Denny departs for military service and becomes a Vietnam medic, honoring both his mother and his Kootenai father. Years later, he returns home to discover that authorities have no suspect in his mother's murder. Unknown to Denny, the killer crafted evidence implicating a young man with sled dogs in the brutal murder and connected Denny to three similar winter slayings. Now the killer desperately wants him dead.
