

Mountains Melt Away: A Memoir of Grace in an Ordinary Life

By Fred Jessett

Mountains Melt Away: A Memoir of Grace in an Ordinary Life is a collection of 41 true stories and essays that tell of God's grace touching ordinary lives. Moments happened on Lakota reservations, in small towns, in hospitals, on Puget Sound beaches, in cemeteries, in a school, in homes and churches through events such as deaths, a chance remark, a bumper sticker, a movie and prayer that connects people who are separated by great distances.

Page created 01/17/2016 DAM
©2016 www.spokaneauthors.org