Shandra Tanner

Shandra has recently joined Spokane Authors. She is a wife and mother of two great kids. She also works in an elementary school. While juggling those things, she has managed to find a way to become an illustrator. She has loved art and drawing for as long as she can remember, and she has wanted to turn her passion into a dream come true.

Shandra did the artwork for a children's book written by Nathaniel Bennett, which included a full-color drawing for the cover and pen and ink drawings for the interior. She also contributed the front cover drawing for Spokane Authors' Christmas Anthology and created illustrations for Kevin Hostbjoer and the Denise and D. J. Guy to accompany their stories in that book.
