Tiffani Harvey Advisory Board Member

A life-long resident of Washington, Tiffani was born with many disabilities, and has had a lot of family members with other disabilities.

While looking for needed information for herself, she realized others could use the information, so she wrote it down.

Tiffani is married, and has two children.

She has been an active and supportive member of Spokane Authors and Self-Publishers for the past few years. She writes to help those of you with disabilities find an opportunity for freedom while maintaining your independence.

Tiffani is on-line in several locations, including Facebook, Twitter, Hometown Reads, Smashwords and more. In general, search for Tiffani707.

A Journey to Independence 1533499438

... is meant to help people who are trying to make their own choices in life. The author tells her own life story in the hope that the readers will learn how to make their own choices. The suggestions and questions throughout this book are guidelines to help people with disabilities know what kinds of questions they should ask before making a choice.

Growing Independent 1533499926

...is a workbook which can be used with A Journey to Independence. It is also a stand-alone book in the format of questions and answers. Growing Independent takes the reader on an in-depth journey to discover their everyday life and life skills. Each question makes a person really think about their life and why and how they are living it. Targeted especially for people who have disabilities, young people, and victims of violence, Growing Independent is a life guide for anyone who chooses to read and implement it.
